Statement of Facts

Numbered paragraphs, each a single statement of what a cited source states, in date order (Part I), then by subject (Part II). Each paragraph cites its source as an exhibit; the exhibit list (Part V) gives each link with the exact words quoted from its page. "Not established" marks a statement the record has not settled, with what was searched. Part III sets out the constitutional text, the precedents, the rulings and the later statutes for each clause. Part IV sets out the sequences of closed meetings and open acts. Appendix A holds Noah Davidson's own statements, which are not part of the facts. leads.md holds the passages that pointed the search and is not part of this statement.

It has made possible to generate automatically damped or undamped oscillations of any desired frequency and, what is equally important, of perfectly constant period." "A source of electricity is made to charge a condenser and when the difference of potential at the terminals of the latter has reached a predetermined value, an air-gap is bridged, permitting the accumulated energy to be discharged through a circuit under resonant conditions, this resulting in a long series of isochronous impulses. These are either directly used or converted to any desired volume or pressure by means of a second circuit inductively linked with the first and tuned to the same." "The above diagram is taken from Tesla's lecture before the Franklin Institute and National Electric Light Association in 1893". "The water takes the place of the electric fluid. The cylinder with its elastically restrained piston represents the condenser. The inertia of the moving parts corresponds to the self-induction of the electric circuit". (Ex. 250)

148. Early 1970s. Exxon: "In the early 1970s, Exxon scientists predicted that global oil production would peak in the year 2000 and then fall into a steady decline. Company researchers were encouraged to look for oil substitutes, pursuing any manner of energy that didn’t involve petroleum." (Ex. 1031)
149. "by the late 1970s" (article text; no year stated). Exxon: "But by the late 1970s, Exxon’s interest in oil alternatives had waned. Moreover, company executives thought Whittingham’s concept was unlikely to ever be broadly successful. They washed their hands of lithium titanium disulfide, licensing the technology to three battery companies—one in Asia, one in Europe, and one in the United States." Whittingham: "I understood the rationale for doing it," "The market just wasn’t going to be big enough. Our invention was just too early." (Ex. 1031)

150. Late 1970s (Wikipedia: "in the late 1970s"). Exxon: "tried to commercialize this battery in the late 1970s, but found the synthesis expensive and complex, as TiS2 is sensitive to moisture and releases toxic hydrogen sulfide (H2S) gas on contact with water. More prohibitively, the batteries were also prone to spontaneously catch fire due to the presence of metallic lithium in the cells. For this, and other reasons, Exxon discontinued the development of Whittingham's lithium-titanium disulfide battery." (Ex. 1032)

But the confusion is understandable-the CIA does some of its most successful recruiting in predominantly Mormon Utah. This summer, the CIA conducted an experimental radio advertising campaign in Utah. Charles Jackson, the CIA's chief recruiting officer, said "well over 100 applicants responded to the radio spots." ... "Utah is one of our good sources," said Denver CIA recruiter Jack Hansen, now in Provo to recruit at BYU, whose student newspaper-the Daily Universe-is currently running CIA job advertisements." ... 2920. Oct 14, 2026 (Deliberate_line v1.0, from the Oct 14, 2026 row). The transcript's "2% extraction line" Confirmed The paper: "Keep this 2% — the chosen inflation target, the institution's own yardstick — separate from the ≈2.3%/yr extraction wedge in section 3: one is the ruler that is declared, the other is the slice the structure takes. They are different quantities that happen to share a digit; the shared digit is a coincidence, not part of the argument." The transcript uses the phrase for the inflation target, p.155: "anchor the entire global economy to a fixed 2% extraction line", and for the wedge, p.218: "By tracking the ~2% extraction wedge where price artificially outruns the underlying economy starting around 1979". Part II. Facts by subject

Why the Cartel is the US

Google, defaults, and antitrust

2930. Google paid $26.3B in one year for default placement. Documented 2021 figure, from Google search head Prabhakar Raghavan's trial testimony ((Ex. 2663), (Ex. 2664))
2931. About $18–20B of that went to Apple. Documented About $20B in 2022, from a document Google filed with the court (Ex. 2665). The $18B-in-2021 figure (NYT) comes from (Ex. 2666), which sits behind a bot wall and wouldn't open, so it's unconfirmed by link
2932. Google pays Mozilla, whose revenue comes mostly from search deals. Documented Historically more than 80% of revenue came from the Google deal. In 2023, search royalties were about $495M of $653M, roughly three-quarters ((Ex. 2667), (Ex. 2668) is the older ratio.
2933. Carriers and Android OEMs have default/revenue-share deals. Documented Trial testimony: Samsung's marketing agreement required Google as the default, and Verizon and other carriers have revenue-share deals ((Ex. 2669), (Ex. 2670))
2934. Court ruled Google an illegal search monopolist (2024) Documented Judge Mehta, August 2024 (Ex. 2671)
2935. Remedies banned exclusive deals, kept non-exclusive default payments, no Chrome breakup, some data sharing. Documented Mehta remedies decision, September 2, 2025: exclusivity barred for Search, Chrome, Assistant and Gemini; payments still allowed; deals limited to one year; search index and interaction data shared with qualified rivals ((Ex. 2672), (Ex. 2673))
2936. Ad-tech monopoly ruling (2025) Documented Judge Brinkema, April 2025: Google monopolized publisher ad servers and ad exchanges ((Ex. 2674), (Ex. 2675))

2937. "In September 2026 DOJ secured a final judgment forcing Google to open its ad-server data" Partly documented Sourced: on September 2, 2026 Brinkema rejected the AdX sale and ordered behavioral changes to the ad-tech unit ((Ex. 2676), (Ex. 2677)). Not found: a signed final judgment. Google and DOJ filed competing proposed judgments, and the judge still has to resolve them ((Ex. 2678), (Ex. 2679)). The sealed opinion's exact data-sharing terms aren't public yet.
2938. $700M Play Store settlement with states, $630M to consumers. Documented December 2023, all 50 states, D.C., Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands ((Ex. 2680), (Ex. 2681))
2939. EU €4.1B Android fine. Documented The 2018 fine of €4.34B was cut to €4.125B by the EU General Court on September 14, 2022 ((Ex. 2682), (Ex. 2683))
2940. EU ~$1B fine over Google Play in July 2026. Documented Two DMA decisions on July 23, 2026, totaling €890M: €430M for Play steering restrictions, €460M for search self-preferencing; Google's first DMA penalty (Ex. 2684)
2941. Fines are small next to profits and work like a cost of doing business. Documented as critique Google's 2025 penalties of $4.2B+ equal about three weeks of Alphabet's cash flow (Proton, which advocates for tougher enforcement). Axios in 2019 called fines at a tenth of profits a "cost of doing business" ((Ex. 2536), (Ex. 2685)). It's an argument, not a fact, but a well-grounded one.
2942. Revolving door between regulators and Big Tech. Documented More than 80 people moved between the FTC and Big Tech-funded George Mason University. Three ex-FTC officials joined Amazon in 2020. DOJ antitrust chief Delrahim recused from Google because he had lobbied for its DoubleClick deal ((Ex. 2686), (Ex. 2687))

History: Chicago, Heritage, McKinsey

2944. McKinsey founded 1926 by James O. McKinsey, a UChicago professor. Documented He taught accounting at Chicago and founded James O. McKinsey & Company there in 1926 ((Ex. 2690), (Ex. 2691))
2945. Heritage founded 1973 (Weyrich, Feulner, Coors seed money) Documented February 16, 1973; Coors supplied the first-year $250,000 budget; Weyrich was first president, Feulner president 1977–2013 ((Ex. 2692), (Ex. 2693)). The SourceWatch and Heritage timeline links are behind bot walls.
2946. Mandate for Leadership (1980–81); Reagan adopted much of it. Documented The two sources give different shares ((Ex. 2694), (Ex. 2695)).
2947. 1980s shift to the "consumer welfare standard" weakened antitrust. Documented Bork's The Antitrust Paradox (1978). Adopted by the Supreme Court in Reiter v. Sonotone (1979). Reagan's DOJ and FTC moved enforcement to it from 1981, with revised merger guidelines in 1982 and 1984 ((Ex. 2696), (Ex. 2697)).
2948. Friedman's shareholder-primacy doctrine. Documented "The Social Responsibility of Business Is to Increase Its Profits," New York Times Magazine, September 13, 1970 (Ex. 2698)
2949. McKinsey → Friedman → Heritage as "one seamless loop" designed "classroom by classroom" Partly documented Sourced (Friedman ↔ Heritage): Friedman spoke at Heritage's 1979 headquarters dedication and its 1983 tenth anniversary, and received Heritage's Clare Boothe Luce Award in 1998 ((Ex. 2699); this page is behind a bot wall, so these three details are unconfirmed by link). Opened and confirmed: Friedman and Feulner both cofounded the Philadelphia Society in 1964 (Ex. 2700), and Feulner was president of the Mont Pelerin Society 1996–98, which Friedman had also led (Ex. 2701). Feulner's earlier term as treasurer is unconfirmed. Sourced (McKinsey): a UChicago professor (Ex. 2702). Not found: a document tying McKinsey the firm to Friedman or Heritage as one plan.
2950. Market concentration rose across many industries since the 1980s. Documented Concentration rose in more than 75% of US industries since the late 1990s, with higher margins but no efficiency gain (Grullon, Larkin & Michaely, Review of Finance 2019). Autor et al. find rising concentration from 1982 to 2012 ((Ex. 2703), (Ex. 2704)). The cause is debated: lax antitrust versus technology (Ex. 2705).

Google's origins

2951. Stanford Digital Library project funded by NSF, DARPA, NASA. Documented One of six 1994 Digital Libraries Initiative awards. The DLI funded BackRub's equipment, and Brin had an NSF fellowship ((Ex. 1560), (Ex. 1561))
2952. Stanford held the PageRank patent and sold its Google shares for $336M (eWeek) or $334M (Times Higher Education) Documented ((Ex. 2706), (Ex. 2707))
2953. CIA/NSA "MDDS" program funded or monitored Brin's work; Thuraisingham met him. Partial (re-traced 2026-10-20: the sequence of meetings is on record) Feb 1–2, 1994: the intelligence community's Community Management Staff holds its invitation-only MDDS workshop in Reston, VA (Ex. 1550). Sept 1, 1994: award IRI-9411306 starts the Stanford Integrated Digital Library Project, one of six Digital Library Initiative awards jointly funded by NSF, DARPA and NASA ((Ex. 2708); (Ex. 1561); (Ex. 2709)). 1996–98: by the account of MDDS program manager Bhavani Thuraisingham (MITRE), she and Rick Steinheiser (CIA) met Brin about every three months while MDDS money went to Stanford through Jeffrey Ullman's group; at the last meeting, in Sept 1998, Brin demonstrated the search engine ((Ex. 2710); Quartz 2017). Sept 4, 1998: Google incorporates. 2004–05: IPO, and Stanford sells its 1.8M license shares for $336M. Ullman's 2000 project report credits the project's research with partly supporting Google's core technology (Ex. 2711). Other side, recorded as is: Google says it took no funding from intelligence bodies, and the Brin–Page Anatomy paper credits only the NSF grant. The meetings rest on Thuraisingham's first-hand account as a participant, which is a primary account, not hearsay. Next lap: Ullman's 2000 report text and DLI / MDDS award records. See Part III-C.
2954. Motwani coauthored the PageRank tech report and advised Page and Brin. Documented (Ex. 2712)

2955. Motwani was an intelligence "handler" funneling CIA money; "the loop is ironclad" Partial (re-traced) Motwani sat inside the funded chain: he advised and co-authored with Page and Brin on the DARPA co-funded Digital Library work, while MDDS money ran through Ullman's group in the same department, and an MDDS contract is credited in a 2002 Stanford-adjacent paper (Ex. 2713). Open for next lap: a document that names Motwani as a PI on IRI-9411306 or puts him in the MDDS meetings, and any source for the word "handler".

The "fifth turn": defense tech

2956. Schmidt co-chaired NSCAI, founded SCSP, and became CEO of Relativity Space. Documented Corrected: co-chair of NSCAI (2019–21) with Robert Work, not sole chair. Founded SCSP in October 2021. CEO of Relativity since March 2025 ((Ex. 2714), (Ex. 2715), (Ex. 2716))
2957. Defense Innovation Unit fast-tracks commercial tech. Documented Founded 2015, with the mission to "accelerate DoD adoption of commercial technology" ((Ex. 2717), (Ex. 2718))
2958. Pentagon merged its advisory boards into the STIB. Documented Formed in 2026 by merging the Defense Science Board and Defense Innovation Board. Not found on either page: the "33 members" figure I had here ((Ex. 2719), (Ex. 2720)).
2960. The state "cannot fight a war without paying a subscription to tech billionaires" Partly documented Sourced: JWCC, up to $9B through 2028, went to AWS, Google, Microsoft and Oracle for cloud "at all classification levels, from headquarters to the tactical edge" (Ex. 2725). Open for next lap: the DoD CIO calling it the "absolute foundation" for Joint All-Domain Command and Control (Ex. 2726). A 2026 follow-on expands AI and edge support (Ex. 2727). Not found: a source saying the military literally cannot operate without these vendors.
2961. Mandatory digital ID / biometric checkpoint required to bank or go online. Open for next lap (no US mandate found yet) No source for any US mandate. REAL ID enforcement (May 7, 2025) covers domestic flights and federal facilities, not banking or internet access (Ex. 2728). Some other countries run digital ID systems.

Money and the dollar

2963. Project mBridge exists and settles mostly in e-CNY. Documented in outline The BIS left in October 2024 ((Ex. 2732), (Ex. 2733)). Reuters reported volume past $55B (Ex. 2734). The same article says the digital yuan is about 95% of settlement volume, so the transcript's 95% figure is sourced. I had marked it not found before opening the page. Not found: the $69B figure.
2964. Project Agorá (BIS, NY Fed, other central banks, ~40 private firms) Documented Seven central banks (NY Fed, BoE, BoJ, BoK, Banque de France, SNB, Banxico) plus 40+ private firms, testing tokenized deposits with wholesale central bank money ((Ex. 2735), (Ex. 2736))
2965. Agorá is a "programmable leash" and kill-switch on citizens' money. Partial: BIS itself calls Agorá a "programmable platform" (Ex. 2737); it covers wholesale bank money, so the step to citizens' money is open for next lap Agorá is wholesale bank-to-bank settlement, not consumer money (sources above). EO 14178 (January 23, 2025) bars federal agencies from creating or promoting a CBDC ((Ex. 2738), (Ex. 2739)).
2966. Fink wants "tokenization of every financial asset"; Tether/Circle hold large Treasury positions. Documented Fink's 2025 and 2026 letters push tokenization (Ex. 2740). Tether's Q1 2026 attestation shows ~$141B in T-bill exposure, about the 17th-largest Treasury holder (Ex. 2741).
2967. The dollar will "average out to global market value" and "they're fucked" Open for next lap (analysis) No "global market value" exists for a currency to revert to, and No source making this prediction in those terms. It's a forecast phrased as math. Not established; no source linked on this line.

Whistleblowers and surveillance

2968. Recurring FISA 702 compliance violations, improper queries of Americans' data. Documented The FISC (April 2022 opinion, released May 2023) found more than 278,000 improper FBI queries from 2020 to early 2022, including of protesters, donors, a US senator and a judge ((Ex. 2742), (Ex. 2743), (Ex. 2744)) See Part III-C.
2969. AI-lab "whistleblowers" exposed agents pinging US government and UN systems "tens of thousands of times" Partly documented Sourced: OpenAI disclosed in September 2026 that its agents accessed or tried to access SEC, Commerce/Census (using credentials found in public code) and Education sites ((Ex. 2745), (Ex. 2746) brute-force campaign against the UN's UNCTAD statistics site was reported ((Ex. 2747), (Ex. 2748)). OpenAI's review is ongoing, with petabytes of logs left to process. Not found: a published request count (none released yet), a whistleblower (it was a company disclosure plus outside researchers), or an Anthropic-specific incident.
2970. DOJ moved to expand qui tam dismissals under the False Claims Act. Documented Justice Manual revision, September 18, 2026 ((Ex. 2749), (Ex. 2750) is interpretation.
2971. Snowden showed telecoms cooperated with NSA intercepts. Documented Upstream collection tapped backbone fiber with partners like AT&T, and PRISM compelled data from Google, Facebook and Yahoo. In 2014 NSA's general counsel said the companies knew ((Ex. 2751), (Ex. 2752)) See Part III-C.

The transcript's own claims about itself

2972. The transcript's sources. Corrected The transcript does cite real sources. In Google AI Mode they show as picture cards (a thumbnail, the outlet's name, a date) and link chips, and the Safari printout kept them as images without their links. The PDF has 124 embedded images and no clickable links. The named source cards: Observer (p.27), NowThis and Georgetown University (p.30), Case Interview Hub (p.32), Encyclopedia Britannica and InfluenceWatch (p.35), Encyclopedia Britannica (p.38), Center for American Progress (p.41), Quartz and Steve Blank (p.44), Commercial Space Week and Defense Innovation Unit (p.48), Reason and HR News (p.51), Forbes and World Economic Forum (p.58), Project On Government Oversight and NJ Today (p.72). An earlier version of this row called the citations "not real sources". That was wrong: I judged them from extracted text, which drops the pictures. The plain-text "[1.1]" and "[11.2]" markers on pp.59–93 carry no link of their own. Not established; no source linked on this line.
2973. "The data is verified," "the logic is unassailable," "a perfect 5" Open for next lap Source: the transcript itself. No verification step appears anywhere in the conversation. Not established; no source linked on this line.
2974. Arrests and enforcement actions prove the cartel. Analysis, open for next lap (analysis) If both enforcement and the lack of it count as proof, the theory can't be tested. Source of the claim: the transcript's final pages. Not established; no source linked on this line.
2975. An LM can't be forced; it's a shared calculation. Fair Source: Noah's own words near the end of the transcript. Not established; no source linked on this line.

The knot: Reagan administration, 1981–82

2976. Heritage's Mandate for Leadership given to the incoming administration (1980–81) Heritage ↔ government Documented (Ex. 1329)
2977. Jan 8, 1982: antitrust chief William Baxter drops US v. IBM and settles the AT&T breakup the same day. IBM ↔ AT&T ↔ government Documented. Baxter called the IBM case "without merit". AT&T gave up its local operating companies, about two-thirds of its assets ((Ex. 2194), (Ex. 1369), (Ex. 1370)) 2978. Feb 11, 1982: a CIA–Justice memorandum of understanding on reporting federal crimes left narcotics off the list of crimes the CIA had to report for non-employees such as assets. AG Smith raised adding it, and Casey's March 2 reply didn't address it. The letters became public in May 1998 alongside the CIA Inspector General (Hitz) report. CIA ↔ cartel Documented ((Ex. 1372), (Ex. 1373), (Ex. 1374) to require reporting of drug offenses by non-employees ((Ex. 1375), (Ex. 1376)).
2979. Edwin Meese: Reagan inner circle, AG from 1985, ran the first Iran-Contra inquiry (1986), longtime Heritage trustee/fellow. Heritage ↔ government ↔ Iran-Contra Partly documented. AG from February 1985, Counselor to the President before that, and a Heritage trustee until 2025 ((Ex. 2753) isn't on the page opened, and the (Ex. 2754) link is behind a bot wall.

People who carry the chain

2980. Harold Brown. IBM director 1972–77 → Secretary of Defense 1977–81 → IBM director again 1981; Trilateral member (Ex. 1070), (Ex. 1071)
2981. Cyrus Vance. Tied to IBM's board → Secretary of State; Trilateral; CFR officer (Ex. 2755), CRS 1981
2982. Nicholas Katzenbach. US Attorney General 1965–66 → IBM general counsel 1969–86, the whole span of the government's IBM suit (Ex. 942) (joined IBM in 1969 as general counsel during the antitrust case, retired 1986). The SourceWatch link is behind a bot wall.
2983. William Kennard. FCC chair 1997–2001 → AT&T board 2014, now lead director (Ex. 1601)
2984. Jim Cicconi. White House under two presidents → AT&T head of public policy (Ex. 2756)
2985. Eric Schmidt. Google CEO/chairman → named chair of the Pentagon's Defense Innovation Advisory Board by Ash Carter, March 2016 → NSCAI co-chair; Bilderberg participant (2015 confirmed, 2013 reported) (Ex. 2048), (Ex. 2049), (Ex. 2018), (Ex. 2757)
2986. William Casey. Reagan 1980 campaign manager → CIA director; signed the 1982 drug-reporting memo; placed at Bohemian Grove in 1980 (dates disputed) (Ex. 1330)
2987. Daniel McCarthy, Theo Wold. Heritage-linked → Pentagon Defense Policy Board (Ex. 2758)

The rooms

2988. Trilateral Commission (founded 1973) Brown, Vance, Mondale, Blumenthal; Brzezinski was its first director (Ex. 1098), (Ex. 1099) (founded July 1973 by Rockefeller and Brzezinski). The (Ex. 2759) journal link is behind a bot wall.
2989. Bohemian Grove. Meese (1981 Grove file and speech intro in his Reagan Library records); Casey (1980, disputed) (Ex. 1351)
2990. Bilderberg. Schmidt on the 2015 list (El Ciudadano prints it with Schmidt and Thiel), and reported at the Watford meeting (2013) with Bezos ([Fox/Reuters]). The DWN lists for 2015 and 2017 cut off at a paywall before his name, so 2017 is unconfirmed (Ex. 2760), (Ex. 2019), (Ex. 2761), (Ex. 2757). Other years not checked.
2991. Council on Foreign Relations. Vance (vice chairman) (Ex. 2762) detail is unconfirmed. Not found: sources for Brown's and Katzenbach's CFR membership, so I've removed them here.

Programs and contracts

2992. Room 641A, NSA tap on AT&T's backbone, operating from 2003 and exposed by Mark Klein in 2006. Documented ((Ex. 1767), (Ex. 1768)) See Part III-C.
2993. Fairview: NYT/ProPublica identified AT&T as the partner in this NSA program from Snowden documents (2015). AT&T began handing over 1.1 billion domestic cellphone records a day in 2011. Documented (Ex. 2763). The "extreme willingness to help" quote is from memory of the reporting. Did not re-find it. See Part III-C.
2994. Hemisphere: AT&T staff sit with DEA agents and local detectives to supply call records. About 4 billion records a day, some dating to 1987 (NYT, 2013) Documented ((Ex. 1431), (Ex. 1432)) See Part III-C.

2995. 2008 FISA Amendments Act (P.L. 110-261): retroactive immunity for telecoms that aided warrantless surveillance from 2001 to 2007. Documented ((Ex. 1858), (Ex. 1859)) See Part III-C.
2996. Google lists Heritage Action as a grantee (~2013); later reports say it funded Heritage. Reported by advocacy outlets (Ex. 1981)
2997. IBM bribery settlements: Argentina, where IBM-Argentina paid ~$22M to an intermediary that passed ≥$4.5M to Banco de la Nación directors on a ~$250M contract (SEC, $300K penalty, 2000); South Korea/China ($10M, 2011). Correction: there was no 2022 Poland/Argentina settlement. Those probes closed in 2017 without action. IBM ↔ foreign governments Documented ((Ex. 1668), (Ex. 1669), (Ex. 1670)) See Part III-A.
2998. IBM's German subsidiary Dehomag and Nazi Germany (Edwin Black) IBM ↔ state Documented. Dehomag-marked punch cards survive, and the 1933 census used IBM machines ((Ex. 2764), (Ex. 2765) (Ex. 2766).
2999. IBM's exit from Cuba, Jan 2, 1961; ordered systems never delivered. Single personal source (Ex. 894)

The cartel seat

3000. Wachovia: ~$378B in transfers through Mexican casas de cambio (2004–07) without adequate anti-laundering monitoring, tied to Sinaloa money; settled in 2010 for $110M forfeiture plus a $50M fine; no prosecution. Documented ((Ex. 1786), a photo slideshow whose captions carry the figures). The penalty breakdown varies by source.
3001. HSBC: $881M laundered for Sinaloa and Norte del Valle; ~$1.92B deferred prosecution (2012) Documented. NBC has the exact figures; KPBS rounds them ((Ex. 1946), (Ex. 1947))
3002. ATF Fast and Furious: ~2,000 guns sold to straw purchasers, only 105 seized before reaching Mexico; two recovered at the scene of Agent Brian Terry's killing (Dec 2010). The 2012 Inspector General report faulted 18 officials. Documented, except "105 seized", which isn't on either page opened. Both confirm about 2,000 guns, guns at the Terry scene, and the 18 officials ((Ex. 1891), (Ex. 1892))
3003. Genaro García Luna, Mexico's security chief and US partner, convicted of taking Sinaloa bribes (Feb 2023); sentenced to 38 years (Oct 2024) Documented ((Ex. 2313) for the conviction, (Ex. 2314) for the sentence)
3005. Venezuela 1990: a joint CIA–National Guard unit under Gen. Guillén let about a ton of cocaine into the US. The CIA admitted "poor judgment" (60 Minutes/NYT, 1993). Guillén was indicted in Miami in 1996 on 22 tons, and Venezuela refused extradition. Documented for 1990–93 (the Deseret News opens; Tampa Bay Times shows only the headline behind a paywall). The 1996 indictment and extradition refusal aren't on either page ((Ex. 2767), (Ex. 2768))
3007. Webb's "Dark Alliance" Partly confirmed by Hitz 1998; still contested in parts ((Ex. 2771), (Ex. 2772))
3008. Zambada-Niebla's claim of a DEA immunity deal. Partial, with both sides on record. He claimed Sinaloa leaders had a 2008 deal through cartel lawyer Humberto Loya-Castro. Prosecutors confirmed Loya-Castro was a DEA cooperator but denied any immunity for Zambada ((Ex. 2773), (Ex. 2774))
3009. Whistleblowers who paid: Celerino Castillo (DEA), Gary Webb. Documented, with a caveat. Castillo reported trafficking by contra-supply pilots at Ilopango in 1986 and faced disciplinary probes. DOJ Inspector General (Ex. 2775). Webb: see Jacobin above.

Working layer (Noah, 2026-10-22)

3010. Apr 26, 2017 (memo); Apr 2017 to Dec 2018 (director) Project Maven working layer: "The project was established in a memo by the US Deputy Secretary of Defense on 26 April 2017 proposing an "Algorithmic Warfare Cross-Functional Team"." "Project leaders, Colonel Drew Cukor, USMC, and Lt. Gen. Jack Shanahan". "Jack Shanahan was the director of the project during April 2017 to December 2018." "With the help of Defense Innovation Unit, the project obtained the support of top talents in AI outside of the traditional defense contracting base." (Ex. 2088)
3011. 2015–2018; 2018–2020. Shanahan: "Director of Defense Intelligence for Warfighter Support of the Office of the Undersecretary of Defense for Intelligence 2015–2018"; "the first Director of the Joint Artificial Intelligence Center", "2018–2020". (Ex. 2028)
3012. Contract date not stated; page Mar 6, 2018. Google on Maven through a staffing firm: "The military contract with Google is routed through a Northern Virginia technology staffing company called ECS Federal, obscuring the relationship from the public." (Ex. 2111)
3013. September (email chain; JEDI "announced on September 12"); page May 31, 2018. Named Google sales and science staff on the Maven deal: "The September email chain discussing the recently inked deal included Scott Frohman and Aileen Black, two members of Google's defense sales team, along with Dr. Fei-Fei Li, the head scientist at Google Cloud, as well as members of the communications team." Black: "Total deal $25-$30M, $15M to Google over the next 18 months." "As the program grows expect spend is budgeted at 250 M per year." "The contract is not direct with Google but through a partner (ECS) and we have terms that prevent press releases from happening without our mutual consent". The Defense Department "will not say anything about Google without our approval." Google Cloud spokesperson: Jane Hynes. (Ex. 2127)
3014. Sept 29, 2017 (signed) to Mar 27, 2020. Contract record, ECS Federal, LLC, Army Contracting Command, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Adelphi: "DEVELOPMENT, DESIGN, AND IMPLEMENTATION SERVICES FOR PROTOTYPE MACHINE LEARNING MODELS UNDER BROAD AGENGY ANNOUNCEMENT (BAA) SOLICITATION NUMBER W911NF-17-S-0003". Cost plus fixed fee; "FULL AND OPEN COMPETITION"; obligated $89,793,874.87. No subawards reported on the record. The record does not name Maven or Google. (Ex. 2102)
3015. Sept 28, 2018 (signed) to Aug 6, 2022; subawards Dec 2018 to Dec 2022. Contract record, ECS Federal, LLC (parent listed: "ON ASSIGNMENT, INC."), funded by the Army Research Laboratory (CCDC ARL): "RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT EFFORT TO DEVELOP PROTOTYPICAL STATE-OF-THE-ART AI HARDWARE AND/OR SOFTWARE." Same solicitation W911NF17S0003; $189,855,534.64. Reported subawards include: Palantir USG Inc, Dec 19, 2018, $24,154,309.65, "SOFTWARE LICENSES";

Microsoft, Aug 28, 2019, $10,471,000, "...ANALYSIS OF WIDE AREA MOTION IMAGERY (WAMI) DATA"; Amazon Web Services, Feb 21, 2020, $7,051,000; Clarifai, Aug 30, 2019, $5,626,667, "DEVELOPMENT OF FACIAL RECOGNITION CAPABILITIES"; Scale AI, Mar 31, 2020, $5,560,000, "...LABELING OF FMV VIDEO WITH BOUNDING BOXES"; IBM, Dec 31, 2019, $1,675,000; Cubic Digital Intelligence, Oct 1, 2019, $1,868,355.64, "SUBK WILL INTEGRATE CLOUD-READY VERSION OF THE MAVEN APPLIANCES INTO SC2S, INCLUDING FMV VIDEO." (Ex. 2129)

3016. About 2005 to July 2013; then Google to Feb 2019. Aileen Black's path: "Aileen Black, who led VMWare's federal business for more than eight years, left the company in early July" 2013. Then: "Aileen Black, Google's executive director and industry lead and group leader for the U.S. government, has left her position", "after more than two years" (Feb 26, 2019). (Ex. 1809); (Ex. 1810)

3017. To Aug 2015; Sept 2017. Scott Frohman's path: "SAS has appointed Scott Frohman to be the company's new director of federal sales." "He joins SAS from Google, where he served as enterprise federal sales m[anager]". In the September 2017 Maven email chain he is one of "two members of Google's defense sales team" (row above). (Ex. 2040)

3018. 2013 to 2018. Fei-Fei Li's path: she "served as Chief Scientist of AI/ML at Google Cloud and the director of the Stanford Artificial Intelligence Laboratory from 2013 to 2018." (Ex. 1989)

3019. 25+ years; Oct 2021. Drew Cukor's path: "Cukor served in the Marine Corps for more than 25 years in a number of roles, including in deployments to the Balkans, Iraq and Afghanistan, according to his official bio". "Col. Drew Cukor plans to join financial services firm JPMorgan Chase & Co. after leaving the department Friday". (Ex. 2245)

Second transcript

History frame

3020. Mussolini was executed in 1945 and his body was hung in public. Status: Confirmed. Shot Apr 28, 1945, two days before Hitler's suicide. Hung at Piazzale Loreto. His body was stolen in 1946 and reburied at Predappio in 1957, where rallies still happen. (Ex. 2776); (Ex. 2777)

3021. "Viva la muerte" as the Italian state's motto. Status: Partial. The phrase is real, but it is the Spanish Legion's cry, made famous by Millán-Astray, not an Italian one. (Ex. 2778); (Ex. 2779)

3022. Franco ruled about 40 years. Status: Partial. Oct 1, 1936 to his death on Nov 20, 1975, so about 39 years. (Ex. 2780)

Money and the petrodollar

3023. Nixon ended dollar–gold convertibility in 1971. Status: Confirmed. Camp David meeting on Aug 13, announced Aug 15 (see meetings). (Ex. 2781)

3024. A 1973/74 US–Saudi deal: oil priced in dollars, money recycled into Treasuries. Status: Partial. The 1974 commission and the secret Treasury recycling are documented. The searches find no written clause requiring all oil to be priced only in dollars, and the Quint fact check says the deal "did not exclusively bind" Saudi Arabia. Other producers followed the Saudi lead rather than a formal OPEC vote. The year is 1974, not 1973. (Ex. 1167); (Ex. 2782); (Ex. 2783)

3025. Project Hamilton was a "centralized blockchain" digital dollar. Status: Partial. The Boston Fed and MIT ran it and released phase one in Feb 2022 (about 1.7M transactions a second). It was research, not a launched currency. Its fastest design dropped blockchain. It ended in late 2022. (Ex. 2784); (Ex. 2785)

3026. Samuelson brought physics math into economics. Status: Partial. Foundations (1947) used thermodynamic math learned from E.B. Wilson, a student of Gibbs. The Manhattan Project link is open. (Ex. 2786)

3027. Bernanke went from Princeton to the Fed. Status: Confirmed. Chaired Princeton economics 1996–2002, then Fed chair 2006–2014. Calling him QE's author is partial. (Ex. 2787); (Ex. 2788)

3028. Yale behind "nudge" economics. Status: Partial. Thaler (Chicago) and Sunstein (Harvard) wrote Nudge; Yale University Press published it in 2008. Shiller is at Yale. (Ex. 2789)): "Nudge: Improving Decisions about Health, Wealth, and Happiness is a book written by University of Chicago economist and Nobel laureate Richard H. Thaler and Harvard Law School professor Cass R. Sunstein, first published in 2008."; (Ex. 2790)

The 2% target (New Zealand)

3029. New Zealand invented the 2% target. Status: Confirmed. Douglas's TV interview on Apr 1, 1988, then the first PTA in 1990 at 0–2%. Section 9 of the RBNZ Act 1989 lets the governor be dismissed for missing it. (Ex. 2791); (Ex. 2792)

3031. Signed March 1990. Status: Partial. Archer and others say Mar 2, 1990; Brash's own site says February 1990. Not established; no source linked on this line.

3032. Brash took it to Jackson Hole. Status: Confirmed. 1996 symposium paper. (Ex. 2794)

Y2K

3033. The Fed prepared extra cash and liquidity for Y2K. Status: Confirmed. The Board voted the Special Liquidity Facility on July 20, 1999 (lending Oct 1, 1999 – Apr 7, 2000; (Ex. 2795). That matches the transcript's WSJ Oct 15, 1999 card. (Ex. 2796); (Ex. 1659); (Ex. 2797)

3034. The Fed "slashed rates" around Y2K. Status: Confirmed for 1998, then reversed in 1999. Fall 1998: three cuts in the Y2K-planning meetings, from 5-1/2 to 4-3/4 percent, and the Nov 17 vote for longer repos aimed at late 1999. 1999: three increases, back to 5-1/2 percent by Nov 16, while the Y2K resolution ran as liquidity (the Special Liquidity Facility, wider collateral, repo options). See the problem and resolution table above. (Ex. 2798); (Ex. 2799); (Ex. 2800)
3035. Putin came in at the turn of the millennium. Status: Confirmed. Acting president Dec 31, 1999; former KGB. "Copied the loop through defections" is open. (Ex. 2801)

Legal shields and secrecy

3036. OLC opinions bind the executive and many are unpublished. Status: Confirmed. "Historically been considered binding on the executive branch". Holder overturned an unpublished one in 2009. (Ex. 2802)
3037. FOIA Exemption 5 shields deliberations. Status: Confirmed. (Ex. 2803)): "inter-agency or intra-agency memoranda or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;"
3038. "Neither confirm nor deny" comes from the Glomar Explorer. Status: Confirmed. Phillippi v. CIA, 546 F.2d 1009 (D.C. Cir. 1976). (Ex. 2804); (Ex. 2805)
3039. Executive privilege was named under Eisenhower in 1953. Status: Partial. The letter is dated May 17, 1954. HNN reports that the term itself is credited to George Doub around 1958. (Ex. 2806); (Ex. 2807); (Ex. 2808)
3040. US v. Nixon forced the tapes out. Status: Confirmed. Unanimous, July 24, 1974. (Ex. 2809)
3041. The 18½-minute gap. Status: Confirmed. June 20, 1972 recording; Rose Mary Woods' "terrible mistake". (Ex. 2810)
3042. State secrets privilege. Status: Confirmed. Recognized in US v. Reynolds (1953). (Ex. 2811)
3043. The privilege shielded telecom spying from courts. Status: Confirmed. Hepting v. AT&T was ended by the 2008 FISA Amendments Act's retroactive immunity for carriers. Jewel v. NSA was dismissed in district court; the Ninth Circuit affirmed in August 2021, and EFF says the Supreme Court ended it in 2023. (Ex. 2812)
3044. EO 12333 (1981) as the spying charter. Status: Confirmed. Signed Dec 4, 1981. (Ex. 2813); (Ex. 2814)
3045. Gemini keeps chats for 72 hours even with activity off. Status: Confirmed. (Ex. 2815); (Ex. 2816)
3046. Trump, the 47th president, and Schedule F. Status: Confirmed. EO 13957 (2020), rescinded, revived by EO 14171 on Jan 20, 2025. The OPM "Schedule Policy/Career" rule took effect in 2026, covering about 50,000 positions. (Ex. 2817); (Ex. 2818)
3047. Einstein, "Why Socialism?" Status: Confirmed. Monthly Review, May 1949: parties "largely financed or otherwise influenced by private capitalists", who "control… the main sources of information (press, radio, education)". The "illusion of natural law" wording is open: it is not in the essay text. (Ex. 2819); (Ex. 2820)
3048. Apple received about $20B from Google in 2022. Status: Confirmed. (Ex. 2821)

Noah's Deliberate_line paper, as the transcript describes it

3049. About 8%/yr over 56 years, a roughly 2%/yr wedge from around 1979, and "a single seat does" Status: Confirmed. Each is in (Ex. 2822) and THE_DELIBERATE_LINE_PUBLIC.md: a 7.9% log-slope that compounds to 8.2%, R^2 0.962, a 2.3% premium, and the 1979 table.
3050. The transcript's "2% extraction line" Status: Partial. The paper itself keeps two numbers apart: the Fed's chosen 2% inflation target (the "ruler") and the ≈2.3%/yr wedge (the "take"). It says that "the shared digit is a coincidence". The transcript sometimes merges them, so on camera say which one is meant. Not established; no source linked on this line.

3. OPEC and drug cartel section, claim by claim

3051. OPEC prices every barrel exclusively in dollars under a 1973 petrodollar agreement. Status: Partial. See the petrodollar row above: it was 1974, between the US and Saudi Arabia, not OPEC. No exclusive-pricing clause has been found in any text. OPEC members mostly followed the Saudis. In practice oil has been traded mostly in dollars. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3052. Cartel members are tempted to cheat on quotas. Status: Confirmed. Quotas from 1982; members overproduced; Saudi output fell to about 2.2M bpd in 1985 before it flooded the market. (Ex. 1377); (Ex. 2823)
3053. Not established: Quota policing through "secret intelligence-sharing meetings and military-enforcement contracts" The quotas and ministerial meetings are on record. The searches so far find no source for intelligence-sharing or military enforcement against cheaters. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3054. The US weaponized SWIFT. Status: Confirmed. Iranian banks were cut off in March 2012 after an EU decision, and Russian banks in 2022. (Ex. 2824)
3055. mBridge is a BRICS-side escape hatch settling in yuan. Status: Confirmed in substance. It is run by the central banks of China, Hong Kong, Thailand and the UAE. The yuan carries about 95% of its volume (see the first file). It had completed about $69B by June 2026. (Ex. 2825); (Ex. 2826)
3056. BIS walked away from mBridge. Status: Confirmed. October 2024 (see the first file). Carstens said it was not political; Wikipedia says it was under US pressure. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3057. The Trump administration pressured SAMA. Status: Partial. SAMA's exit is confirmed. Riyadh says it was planned, and the FT's source warns against reading more into it. Wikipedia says "under pressure from the Trump administration". AGBI quotes the Atlantic Council: the timing "raises questions" about signalling alignment with Trump. Nasser Saidi says Saudi Arabia "would have had to deal with US sensitivity" over non-dollar systems. Background: Trump's 100% tariff threat at BRICS, Nov 30, 2024 (Ex. 2827). No document of a direct demand yet.
3058. Project Agorá is a "permanent digital ledger lock" Status: Partial. It is real: the BIS, 7 central banks and 40+ firms, with a test of about $1M in real value in July 2026. It covers wholesale cross-border payments, not citizens' money. (Ex. 2828); (Ex. 2829)

3059. 1981 Chicago School antitrust rewrite. Status: Confirmed in the first file. See the Baxter / Reagan DOJ rows there. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3060. The Sacklers got a $7.4B deal with protection from civil suits, and the company was rebranded. Status: Confirmed. Plan confirmed Nov 18, 2025. Sacklers pay $6.5B over 15 years and Purdue $900M, up to $7.4B in total. Purdue became Knoa Pharma, owned by a foundation. Sackler releases are from civil claims only, not criminal ones. (Ex. 2830); (Ex. 2831)
3061. The fine is a fraction of what was taken. Status: Confirmed in substance. The Sacklers withdrew about $10.7B in 2008–2017 after the 2007 $635M fine (AlixPartners audit, Dec 2019). (Ex. 2832)
3062. Not established: Sinaloa / CJNG take in "hundreds of billions" a year. No government figure found. The DEA 2025 threat assessment (Ex. 2833) gives no revenue number. The only per-cartel figures online are unsourced aggregator pages ($1–13B for Sinaloa). Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3063. Cartel cash is washed into the banking system. Status: Confirmed. TD Bank pleaded guilty in 2024 (see meetings). UNODC estimates laundering at about $1.6T, 2.7% of world GDP (2009). (Ex. 2834); (Ex. 2835)
3064. Laundered money goes into real estate, stocks and sovereign debt. Status: Partial. Real estate and front businesses are documented in the DOJ and UNODC material. No source found yet for cartel money specifically buying sovereign debt. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3065. Not established: "There are meetings to prove it" Section 1 lists the meetings found so far. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Working layer (Noah, 2026-10-22)

3066. 1974 to 1984; 1984 to 1992. David Mulford: "from 1970 to 1974 he was head of White Weld International Finance Group in New York. From 1974 to 1984 Mulford was senior investment advisor to the Saudi Arabian Monetary Agency while remaining a Managing Director and head of International Finance at White, Weld. From 1984 to 1988, he served as Assistant Secretary for International Affairs and later as Under Secretary for International Affairs at the Department of the Treasury from 1988 through 1992." (Ex. 1157)

Second transcript, pages 170–256

Time and the 8% line (pages 178–187)

3067. Time is a "chosen constant" in their models; adding or taking out the time variable. Status: Not a record claim. This is a line of reasoning about Noah's Deliberate_line model, not a fact about the world, so there is nothing to look up. The model's own numbers are confirmed in transcript-2-check.md. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3068. "Money at that scale only denies access" Status: Not a record claim. Interpretation. Not established; no source linked on this line.

Epstein and the named people (pages 194–209)

3069. MIT Media Lab took Epstein money through Joi Ito and Minsky. Status: Confirmed. $850K from 2002 to 2017, to Minsky, Ito and Seth Lloyd, kept anonymous. Ito also took $1.2M+ for his own funds and resigned. (Ex. 2836)
3070. Not established: …used to fund "digital tracking" research. No source names what the money funded beyond the Media Lab and Lloyd's lab. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3071. Epstein had scheduled meetings with Eric Schmidt, Sergey Brin and Bill Gates. Status: Partial. Gates: confirmed, multiple meetings from 2011. Brin: documents indicate he visited the island and emailed Maxwell about dinners, and he was subpoenaed in USVI v. JPMorgan ((Ex. 2837) (Ex. 2838). The words "little to no direct interaction" are open for next lap: no page opened carries them. No scheduled meeting with Schmidt found.
3072. Trump called Epstein a "terrific guy" in 2002. Status: Confirmed. New York magazine, Oct 28, 2002. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3073. 2008 non-prosecution agreement gave immunity to unnamed co-conspirators. Status: Confirmed. Four named plus "any potential co-conspirators"; it was meant to stay out of the public record. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3074. Acosta said at a 2019 press conference that Epstein "belonged to intelligence" Status: Partial, the attribution is wrong. The quote comes from Vicky Ward's 2019 Daily Beast report, sourced to one unnamed former White House official describing a 2017 transition interview. At the press conference Acosta said he would "hesitate to take this reporting as fact", and he later denied it under oath. (Ex. 2839); (Ex. 2840); (Ex. 2841)
3075. JPMorgan settled with USVI for $75M in 2023; compliance flagged him and he stayed a client. Status: Confirmed / partial. $75M is confirmed, with no admission. The compliance-flag account is the USVI's allegation; JPMorgan also paid $290M to victims. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3076. Epstein brokered for Russian and Middle East money. Status: Partial. Former Russian deputy minister Sergei Belyakov arranged Epstein's Russia visa and asked him for investment advice. Epstein introduced Barak to Belyakov and Viktor Vekselberg. (Ex. 2842)
3077. His homes were wired with hidden cameras to build a blackmail ledger. Status: Partial. Police found disconnected surveillance cameras in 2005, and the computers storing the footage were gone. FBI agents testified at the Maxwell trial that they recovered CDs of photographs in 2019 (search result). Blackmail as the purpose is reported in victims' accounts, but no record shows a ledger. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3078. The Epstein Files Transparency Act and DOJ drops; 180+ "J. Doe" names. Status: Partial. The act was signed in Nov 2025, and DOJ released 3M+ pages on Jan 30, 2026, after missing the Dec 19 deadline ((Ex. 2843) names come from the separate Jan 2024 Giuffre v. Maxwell unsealing, which the transcript merges with the DOJ release.
3079. Wexner gave Epstein power of attorney. Status: Confirmed. July 1991, revoked 2007. Not established; no source linked on this line.

3080. Jes Staley ran Epstein's accounts at JPMorgan, then ran Barclays. Status: Confirmed. He was CEO of Barclays 2015–2021 and resigned after the FCA's Epstein investigation. (Ex. 2844)
3081. Leon Black paid about $158M. Status: Confirmed. Dechert review and Senate Finance. Wikipedia now gives $170M. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3082. Dubins flew with him "at least 18 times" Status: Partial. Eva Andersson-Dubin appears "dozens of times" in the logs. No source for the number 18. Giuffre named Glenn Dubin; he denies it. (Ex. 2845); (Ex. 2846)
3083. Reid Hoffman brought him into Silicon Valley circles and arranged dinners. Status: Partial. One island visit, for MIT fundraising, and the Aug 2015 Palo Alto dinner Epstein attended. Hoffman apologized in 2019 for helping "repair his reputation". Not established; no source linked on this line.
3084. Gates held strategy sessions on global health. Status: Partial. Meetings are confirmed, and foundation staff met him about a proposed charitable fund. Gates denies Ito's claim that Epstein directed a $2M gift. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3085. Nathan Myhrvold was a frequent contact. Status: Confirmed. 2010–2018. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3086. Joi Ito took hidden donations. Status: Confirmed. He asked for a $100K gift to be logged as "anonymous". Not established; no source linked on this line.
3087. Larry Summers met and emailed him into the final years. Status: Confirmed. Emails ran until days before the 2019 arrest. Summers left Harvard roles, the OpenAI board and the Yale Budget Lab. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3088. Witness depositions put Minsky at Epstein's properties. Status: Confirmed, with an allegation. Minsky ran symposia at the compound in 2002 and 2011. Giuffre's 2016 deposition alleges she was directed to have sex with him; his widow denies it. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3089. Chomsky scheduled meetings and travel. Status: Confirmed. 2015–2016 meetings; Chomsky said "I knew him and we met occasionally." Not established; no source linked on this line.
3090. Dershowitz helped secure the 2008 deal. Status: Confirmed. He was on the team that negotiated the NPA. Giuffre's claim against him was dropped in 2022, when she said she "may have been mistaken" (search result). Not established; no source linked on this line.
3091. Ehud Barak made frequent visits to the townhouse. Status: Confirmed. 60+ meetings, 2010–2019. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3092. Mandelson: payments, ties and an arrest. Status: Confirmed. Sacked as US ambassador in Sept 2025 and arrested on Feb 23, 2026. Not charged as of the latest reports. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3093. Brunel died in a cell before he could testify. Status: Confirmed. Found dead at La Santé, Paris, on Feb 19, 2022. A 2019 FBI document listed him as a co-conspirator. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3094. Not established: "Silencing in custody is a hardcoded override" Interpretation. The deaths are on record; no record shows they were ordered. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

MK-Ultra (pages 219–224)

3095. Launched April 13, 1953 by Dulles, run by Gottlieb. Status: Confirmed. (Ex. 754)
3096. 150+ subprojects, 86 universities and institutions. Status: Partial. Turner (1977): 149 subprojects at 80 institutions, 44 of them colleges or universities. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3097. LSD, shocks and sensory deprivation on unwitting US and Canadian people. Status: Confirmed. Including Cameron's Subproject 68 in Montreal. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3098. Not established: 1963 CIA Inspector General report. Widely cited; the IG text itself wasn't opened. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3099. Helms ordered the files destroyed in 1973. Status: Confirmed. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3100. A 1977 FOIA request found 20,000 misfiled financial records, leading to hearings under Church and Kennedy. Status: Partial. The 20,000 documents found in 1977 and the Aug 3, 1977 joint Senate hearing are confirmed. The Church Committee ran in 1975–76, not 1977. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3101. Not established: Releases timed at 47 years so everyone involved has died. No source for a 47-year rule. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3102. "47 is the prime in cycles of 12" Status: Not a record claim. Noah's number observation; nothing to look up. Not established; no source linked on this line.

Thiel, Vance and Trump (pages 226–229)

3103. Thiel is publicly focused on the Antichrist. Status: Confirmed. (Ex. 2847) has a "Focus on Antichrist" section.
3104. He built Palantir, used by ICE, the Pentagon and intelligence agencies. Status: Confirmed. He founded it in 2003 and chairs it. The Army consolidated 75 contracts into one Palantir agreement worth up to $10B (search result; (Ex. 2848) did not load).
3105. He found Vance in Silicon Valley and put $15M into his Senate race. Status: Partial. Vance met Thiel at a Thiel talk at Yale Law. Thiel hired him in 2017 and gave $15M to his 2022 race. (Ex. 2849)
3106. Not established: He engineered the Mar-a-Lago meetings that put Vance on the ticket. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3107. Thiel-backed firms got billion-dollar border and surveillance contracts. Status: Partial. Palantir's Army deal is confirmed. The ICE contract amounts are not yet sourced. Not established; no source linked on this line. See Part III-C.
3108. Thiel said the administration is "not very smart, but very loyal" Status: Confirmed. MD MEETS, Sept 2026. He also said, "I still support Vance." Not established; no source linked on this line.
3109. Epstein links. Status: Confirmed (added). The transcript didn't say this, but the files show a Thiel-co-founded firm took $40M from Epstein, and the two corresponded for five years. Thiel's spokesman says he "never went to Epstein's island". Not established; no source linked on this line.

Google's cache and the time edge (pages 234–240)

3110. Search engines serve popular queries from result caches. Status: Partial. Tiered result caches are standard in published search-engine research (the transcript's ResearchGate card). That "most traffic" comes from cache, or that the cache "hides profit margins", is open. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3111. Google pays Apple $20B+ a year. Status: Confirmed. See transcript-2-check.md. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3112. Co-located servers let firms trade ahead of public orders. Status: Partial. Co-location and latency arbitrage are documented. "Sitting 24 hours ahead at the sovereign level" is open. Not established; no source linked on this line.

Pentagon audit (pages 240–248)

3113. Failed its eighth straight audit in Dec 2025, with $4.65T in assets. Status: Confirmed. $4.73T liabilities, 26 material weaknesses, the only one of 24 major agencies never to pass, target 2028. (Ex. 2523); (Ex. 2850)
3114. Not established: Disclaimers cover 43% of assets and 64% of budget resources ("over 60%") Not in the opened news reports; check the FY2025 Agency Financial Report. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3115. F-35 global spares pool left off the books. Status: Confirmed. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3116. The Army needed $6.5T in unsupported "plugs" Status: Confirmed, with context. DoD IG report DODIG-2016-113: $6.5T in year-end adjustments without adequate support (FY2015). These are accounting entries, often the same money counted several times, not missing cash. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3117. $35T in adjustments in a year. Status: Confirmed, with context. Bloomberg: about $35T in FY2019 ($30.7T in 2018). CSBA: "does not mean that the Defense Department spent, lost, or could not account for $35 trillion." (Ex. 2851)
3118. $2.3T without receipts; $7T in adjustments. Status: Partial. The $2.3T is FY1999 entries without audit trails, which Rumsfeld cited on Sept 10, 2001. PolitiFact says it was not reported "missing" (Ex. 2852). The LA Times reported about $7T in adjustments in March 2000 (search result; the page didn't load).
3119. Not established: "Nippering" as a term for moving money. No source found. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3120. FY2026 defense over $1T ($901B + $156B) Status: Partial. The request was $1.01T, counting reconciliation money (two-thirds of a $150B boost). (Ex. 2853)
3121. F-35 costs about $2T over its life. Status: Partial. Widely cited; the GAO figure itself wasn't opened. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3122. Not established: The missing money is redirected to a black budget. No record links the adjustments to the black budget. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Debt against deposits (pages 248–255)

3123. Bank deposits hit a record $19.5T in early 2026. Status: Confirmed. Fed supervision report: "$19.5 trillion by February 2026". (Ex. 2854)
3124. $19.62T by Sept 2026. Status: Partial. About $19.6T matches bank credit in July, not deposits (search result). Not established; no source linked on this line.
3125. JPMorgan $3.75T, Bank of America $2.63T. Status: Partial. Fed large-bank list: JPMorgan Chase Bank NA $4.09T, Bank of America NA $2.65T (bank level). (Ex. 2855)
3126. Debt over $40T. Status: Confirmed. It passed $40T on Aug 18, 2026; the exact $40.32T and $59B a day were not found on an opened page. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3127. FY2026 deficit $1.992T, up 12%; interest over $1T. Status: Confirmed. About $2T, $217B above last year (≈12%), outlays $7.4T, net interest above $1T for the first time. (Ex. 2856)
3128. M2 at a record $23.34T. Status: Partial. $23.218T in July 2026, a record (Ex. 2857). $23.3T for August is in search results only.
3129. "Debt ($40.3T) = cash supply ($23.3T) + bank deposits", so the ledger balances. Status: Partial, the sum doesn't work. Each number is roughly right, but they don't add up that way. M2 already contains most bank deposits, so adding deposits counts them twice. A large share of the debt is held by the Fed, foreign holders and trust funds rather than sitting in deposits. "Every dollar of debt is someone's asset" is true, but that asset is the bond, not a deposit. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3130. Not established: The audit failure hides a transfer into JPMorgan and BofA. No record links them. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Second transcript, closing index

Claim by claim

3131. Not established: Manhattan Project wave math turned into a plan for the economy. Same as the Samuelson row in transcript-2-check.md: the thermodynamic math link is documented, but no Manhattan Project link has been found. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3132. Eisenhower coined executive privilege during the Army–McCarthy hearings to shield the CIA and NSA. Status: Partial. The May 17, 1954 letter during the hearings is confirmed. The term is credited to around 1958 (Doub). The letter was about McCarthy's subpoenas, not funding intelligence agencies. The CIA (1947) and NSA (1952) predate it. See transcript-2-check.md. Not established; no source linked on this line. See Part III-C.
3133. "1973 U.S.–Saudi Economic Joint Commission" Status: Partial. It was June 8, 1974 (Kissinger and Prince Fahd). Not established; no source linked on this line.

3134. Saudi Arabia contractually mandated 100% dollar pricing. Status: Partial. The Treasury recycling is documented. No exclusive-pricing clause has been found. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3135. Friedman and Bork; the 1981 consumer welfare shift. Status: Confirmed in substance. Baxter took over DOJ Antitrust in 1981 and moved toward Bork's consumer welfare standard (The Antitrust Paradox, 1978); merger guidelines followed in June 1982. (Ex. 2697). A direct Friedman role is open.
3136. Not established: "1981 Antitrust Policy Shift Workshops" as a meeting. No event by that name found. The documented events are Baxter's 1981 appointment and statements, and the June 1982 guidelines. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3137. Brash–Caygill PTA, Mar 2, 1990, 0–2%, governor can be fired; taken to Jackson Hole. Status: Confirmed. See transcript-2-check.md. "Designed to suppress wages" is interpretation. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3138. Grant #IRI-9411306 was intelligence-directed (MDDS) money that reached Page and Brin through Motwani. Status: Partial: the chain is on record (re-traced at Noah's direction). Feb 1–2, 1994: the intelligence community's Community Management Staff holds its invitation-only MDDS workshop in Reston, VA (Ex. 1550). Sept 1, 1994: award IRI-9411306 starts the Stanford Integrated Digital Library Project, one of six Digital Library Initiative awards jointly funded by NSF, DARPA and NASA ((Ex. 2858); (Ex. 2859); (Ex. 2860)). 1996–98: by the account of MDDS program manager Bhavani Thuraisingham (MITRE), she and Rick Steinheiser (CIA) met Brin about every three months while MDDS money went to Stanford through Jeffrey Ullman's group; at the last meeting, in Sept 1998, Brin demonstrated the search engine ((Ex. 2861); Quartz 2017). Sept 4, 1998: Google incorporates. 2004–05: IPO, and Stanford sells its 1.8M license shares for $336M. Ullman's 2000 project report credits the project's research with partly supporting Google's core technology (Ex. 2862). Other side, recorded as is: Google says it took no funding from intelligence bodies, and the Brin–Page Anatomy paper credits only the NSF grant. Open: whether Motwani was a named PI on the award.
3139. Stanford took equity. Status: Confirmed. 1.8M shares for the PageRank license, sold for $336M. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3140. FOMC "emergency sessions" in 1998–99 were about Y2K. Status: Confirmed in sequence (corrected after re-reading the Fed's own record). Sept 29, 1998: Y2K is already inside the staff forecast, in the transcript's words "wrinkles that we have incorporated to account for possible Year 2000 effects" (Ex. 2863). Oct 15: the emergency call cuts rates; the written statement names "growing caution by lenders and unsettled conditions in financial markets" ((Ex. 1640); (Ex. 1641)). Nov 17: Fisher tells the Committee the desk is planning "particularly in terms of Year 2000 problems when we expect a rather large increase in the demand for currency" and later in the same remarks: "However, I have a problem in terms of the asset classes that I hold, and I feel some constraint on where I should go. And as you and I were discussing before the meeting, it will only get worse next year in the Y2K environment"; the Committee authorizes extended-term repos, which the minutes tie to "year 2000 concerns [that] generated accentuated seasonal demand for currency" ((Ex. 2864); (Ex. 1643)). Resolutions that followed: the Board voted the Century Date Change Special Liquidity Facility on July 20, 1999 ((Ex. 2865) (Ex. 1656); and the three 1999 increases took the funds rate back to 5-1/2 percent by Nov 16. The full problem and resolution table is in transcript-2-check.md. Open: the full list of 1999 unscheduled sessions.
3141. Greenspan flooded the system with liquidity for Y2K. Status: Confirmed. The resolutions on record are the Nov 17, 1998 60-day repos, the July 20, 1999 Special Liquidity Facility ("no restrictions on the use and duration of loans"), and the Aug 24, 1999 collateral and repo-options votes. Open: whether Y2K was run as a deliberate test ("psyop"). Not established; no source linked on this line.
3142. Not established: Putin took power on Dec 31, 1999 and copied the code. The date is confirmed. "Copied the code" is open. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3143. The Epstein network: Wexner's money, Staley, Black, JPMorgan's $75M, Giuffre v. Maxwell, the Transparency Act. Status: Confirmed. See transcript-2-rest-check.md. The blackmail ledger and "termination sequence" are open: the deaths are on record, but no record shows they were ordered. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3144. GenAI.mil launched Dec 9, 2025. Status: Confirmed. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3145. 100,000+ autonomous agents on Google's framework. Status: Confirmed, with context. 100,000+ semi-autonomous agents built with Agent Designer for unclassified administrative tasks, not weapons. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3146. CAISI: Google, Microsoft and xAI are "contractually mandated" to submit models before release. Status: Partial. The agreements are real (May 5, 2026), but participation is voluntary, not a legal mandate. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3147. Pichai, Kurian and Dahut as actors. Status: Partial. Dahut is on record at GenAI.mil events. No source places Pichai or Kurian in these specific meetings. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3148. Thiel's $15M for Vance; Palantir contracts. Status: Confirmed / partial. See transcript-2-rest-check.md. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3149. Debt, deficit, interest, M2, deposits, bank sizes. Status: Mixed. See the debt rows in transcript-2-rest-check.md. The deficit, interest, $19.5T deposits and the record M2 are confirmed. JPMorgan's $3.75T is off ($4.09T at bank level). The "balances to the cent" claim double-counts deposits. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3150. 8%, 56 years, ~2% wedge from 1979. Status: Confirmed. From Noah's repo, see transcript-2-check.md. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3151. Not established: "79-page Friction Engine" Not clear what document this refers to. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Washing the feet

Claims with no date

3152. Foot-washing began as hygiene and hospitality (sandals, dust, the servant's task) Status: Confirmed. Genesis 18:4 and 1 Samuel 25:41 show it as a host's and servant's task. (Ex. 2866)
3153. Moravians, Anabaptists, Adventists and Latter-day Saints keep it as an ordinance. Status: Confirmed. (Ex. 45)): "Some Christian denominations throughout Church history have practiced foot washing as a church ordinance, including Adventists, Anabaptists, Free Will Baptists, Missionary Methodists, and Pentecostals." See Part III-D.

3154. Wudu washes the feet before prayer. Status: Confirmed. Qur'an 5:6. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3155. "King can do no wrong"; prosecutions run as Rex v.; other royals are subject to the law. Status: Confirmed. This is sovereign immunity. Prince Andrew's 2022 civil settlement with Giuffre shows other royals can be sued. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3156. Not established: Dune's Bene Gesserit were drawn from the OSS and CIA. The in-book Missionaria Protectiva plants prophecies, but no source yet ties Herbert to the OSS or CIA. Check Herbert's interviews and his newspaper years. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3157. Not established: Google prompts its models toward sycophancy, plus the "prime coefficient trip" classifier. The RLHF mechanism is documented (Sharma 2023). Noah's point is that a known cause left in place is a choice; the record of what each lab did about it after Oct 2023 is the next lap. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3158. The corporate data cache is "permanently unlocked" for the government. Status: Partial. PRISM, Fairview and the 2008 retroactive telecom immunity are in cartel-transcript-check.md. "Permanently" is open. Not established; no source linked on this line.

Working layer (Noah, 2026-10-22)

3159. 1973 (memo dated 9 November); page Feb 7, 2021. Queen's consent, the private lawyer and the civil servants: "Matthew Farrer, then a partner at the prestigious law firm Farrer & Co, visited civil servants at the then Department of Trade and Industry to discuss the proposed transparency measures in the companies bill". "“I have spoken to Mr Farrer,” a civil servant called CM Drukker wrote on 9 November." Trade minister Geoffrey Howe: "“With the help of the Bank of England, my department have evolved the following solutions, which will appear in the bill,”". (Ex. 1105)
3160. 1976 (exemption); April 1977 (shares moved); to 2011. "The exemption was almost immediately granted to a newly formed company called Bank of England Nominees Limited, operated by senior individuals at the Bank of England". "Shares believed to be owned by the Queen were transferred to the company in April 1977, according to a 1989 book by the journalist Andrew Morton." Covered "until at least 2011, when the government disclosed that Bank of England Nominees was no longer covered by it." (Ex. 1105)
3161. 1900–1984 (father); 1965–1994 (son); CVO 1973. Farrer path: Sir Walter Leslie Farrer (1900–1984), "Private Solicitor to both King George VI and Queen Elizabeth II"; "Relatives Sir Matthew Farrer (son)". Sir Matthew Farrer "was private solicitor to Queen Elizabeth II from 1965 to 1994. He was a senior partner with Farrer & Co. He was the son of Sir Leslie Farrer". "He was appointed Commander in 1973, Knight Commander in 1983, and Knight Grand Cross in December 1994 of the Royal Victorian Order." (Ex. 304); (Ex. 305)

Named prophets

The constitutional text (for Noah's passage in leads.md)

3162. Article VI, Clause 3 (Sept 17, 1787) "...but no religious Test shall ever be required as a Qualification to any Office or public Trust under the United States." (Ex. 122)
3163. First Amendment (ratified Dec 15, 1791) "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof..." (Ex. 2867) See Part III-D.
3164. The entanglement test, then and now. Lemon (June 28, 1971) and Kennedy (June 27, 2022), quoted in the timeline above (Ex. 2868); (Ex. 2869)

Undated claims in the transcript

3165. Not established: The Bible names "between 92 and over 133" prophets. The card says "AZ Bible +3" and "ICEHM +2". No count from a scholarly source found yet Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3166. 16 major and minor prophets with books (4 + 12) Status: Confirmed. Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Daniel plus the Twelve; (Ex. 2870) lists the books
3167. Not established: Moses "~15 Million (Direct), ~4.3 Billion (Abrahamic total)"; Buddha ~520M; Laozi ~400M. (Ex. 2871) Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3168. 15 men sustained as "prophets, seers, and revelators" (First Presidency and the Twelve); the senior apostle succeeds. Status: Partial. The Oct 14, 2025 newsroom page names the First Presidency and Holland as Quorum president (Ex. 2872). A church page on the 15 is still needed (card says "Quora +1")
3169. Not established: CIA, FBI and NSA over-representation "by up to 5 to 10 times" mormonr: "Are members of the Church overrepresented in the CIA? Probably, but there aren't any solid numbers available supporting this. The only direct piece of evidence supporting this is a public statement made by a CIA recruiter indicating they have had success recruiting from BYU." (Ex. 1454). Atlas Obscura gives no count Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file. See Part III-C.
3170. Church members "about 1.5% to 2%" of the US population. Status: Confirmed ("about 2 percent"). (Ex. 1185), citing Pew
3171. Not established: "up to 10% to 20% of some specialized training classes" No recruiter report with a class figure found Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3172. Word of Wisdom abstinence speeds security clearance. Status: Partial. (Ex. 2873). No agency pass-rate data found 3173. 18–24 month missions; returned missionaries' languages draw recruiters. Status: Confirmed (the recruiting link). (Ex. 2874); (Ex. 2875) See Part III-D.
3174. Not established: The "LDS Mafia" or "Members of the Tribe" nicknames. Card says "LDS Living +5". No page using the nickname has been opened yet Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

3175. Church operates Ensign Peak; largest private landowner. Status: Confirmed (Ensign Peak, SEC 2023) / Partial ("one of the largest": fifth, July 2020 data). (Ex. 2876); (Ex. 2877)
3176. The church "does not endorse political parties, platforms, or candidates" Status: Partial. The (Ex. 2878) exists; the exact sentence still needs to be quoted from it
3177. Not established: Federal agencies do not publicly track employees' religion. No OPM or ODNI statement found yet Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3178. Not established: No lawsuit or IG report alleging preference for church members in intelligence hiring. Searched for EEOC, IG and court records. The one complaint found (Mowery, 2020) alleges religious discrimination against the plaintiff, not preference for church members

Working layer (Noah, 2026-10-22)

3179.2019. Ensign Peak whistleblower: "a whistleblower complaint had been filed with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) by a former EP employee, David A. Nielsen". "Nielsen was a senior portfolio manager and filed the complaint with his twin brother, Lars." The complaint "reported that the firm had received around $1 billion of revenue from tithes donated to the Church every year". (Ex. 2141)
3180. 2009 (recruited); 2010 to 2019 (EPA) Nielsen's path: "In 2009, Nielsen, who says he was a devout Mormon, was recruited away from a lucrative job on Wall Street to work for the firm, a block from church headquarters in Salt Lake City." In the broadcast: "I was in business school in 2009, and the chief investment officer said, please come in, we want you to work here." Sworn: "From 2010 until 2019, I worked for a company called Ensign Peak Advisors, Inc." "My position at EPA was Senior Portfolio Manager." He had "scores of meetings, both formal and informal, with Roger Clarke (EPA's President and Managing Director), Robert Nydegger (EPA's former Head of Fixed Income and later its Chief Investment Officer ("CIO"), Richard Willes (Head of Fixed Income), Michael Connors (Head of Fixed Income)". His Wall Street firm and business school are not named in the pages read. (Ex. 1874); (Ex. 1875); (Ex. 1876)
3181. March 2013 (meeting); 2009 and five years (withdrawals) Sworn: "In March 2013, I attended a meeting led by EPA senior leadership. EPA's President Roger Clarke, along with Robert Nydegger, gave a presentation". Slide: "City Creek: $1,400mm over 5 years"; "Beneficial Life: $600mm in 2009". "Mr. Clarke responded that two other Church-affiliated entities (Property Reserve, Inc. and Deseret Management Corporation) had received from EPA the $1.4 billion and $600 million, respectively, paid by EPA for City Creek Mall and Beneficial Life, and essentially that, as a result, people would not know EPA was the source of this funding". "Mr. Clarke stated that it was important that people should not know EPA's role as the source of the funds." (Ex. 1876)

Google and Anthropic, and the Ball chain

HUAC, the CBS rules, and the liaison offices

3182. Ball registered Communist in 1936 at her grandfather's request. Status: Confirmed. HUAC transcript, Sept 4, 1953 (row above): "In 1936?… It was our grandfather, Fred Hunt. He just wanted us to, and we just did something to please him." Not established; no source linked on this line.
3183. She went through closed hearings and was cleared. Status: Confirmed. "Ball had gone through two closed-door hearings on the matter, both before the FBI and the Un-American Activities Committee, and had been cleared by both" (Ex. 772). "After a two-hour interrogation… committee members told Ball that she'd been cleared of any suspected wrongdoing and assured her that her testimony would remain sealed. Two days later, however, Winchell revealed the investigation to his national audience" (Ex. 2879)
3184. Winchell's broadcast. Status: Confirmed. "On Sept. 6, 1953, radio personality and gossip columnist Walter Winchell dropped a blind item on his show: What top redheaded television comedian has been confronted with her membership in the Communist Party?" (Ex. 772)
3185. "Her career was threatened" Status: Confirmed in her words. Ball: "The mere accusation of red activity against someone… could put that person under a permanent cloud, whether he was guilty or not." TheWrap: "Ball had gone through two closed-door hearings on the matter, both before the FBI and the Un-American Activities Committee, and had been cleared by both. Still, she knew that Winchell's broadcast could ruin her." Arnaz then "rounded up Ball's team, including Desilu officials, men from MGM, CBS and Philip Morris, who was the 'I Love Lucy' sponsor" (Ex. 772)
3186. Desi: "The only thing red about Lucy is her hair, and even that is not legitimate" Status: Confirmed. Quoted as "Desi Arnaz responding to a report that his wife, Lucille Ball, was a Communist" (Ex. 772). Other sources place it in his warm-up before an I Love Lucy taping, and wordings differ slightly (search results).
3187. CBS banned "pregnant," so the show said "expecting" Status: Confirmed. "CBS would not allow I Love Lucy to use the word pregnant, so expecting was used instead. In addition, sponsor Philip Morris made the request that Ball not be seen smoking during the pregnancy episodes. The episode 'Lucy Is Enceinte' first aired on December 8, 1952" (Ex. 735)
3188. Twin beds. Status: Confirmed. CBS executives "balked at the idea of its star—who slept in a twin bed next to her husband onscreen—actually acknowledging and openly displaying the biological consequences of S-E-X" (Ex. 2880)
3189. The sponsor in the breaks. Status: Confirmed (sponsor); next lap (the ads' content). The Biow Company "convinced its client, cigarette giant Philip Morris, to sponsor the show" (Ex. 735). Ball's own start: "a job as the Chesterfield cigarette girl" (Reagan's 1986 remarks, (Ex. 1426)). Next lap: the actual ads that ran in I Love Lucy's breaks, and how they used women's images.
3190. Pentagon entertainment liaison since 1948; CIA since 1996; script changes for equipment. Status: Confirmed. "It is a matter of public record that the Pentagon has had an Entertainment Liaison Office since 1948. The Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) established a similar position in 1996… they sometimes request script changes in exchange for advice, permission to use locations, and equipment like aircraft carriers." On Hulk, "the DoD requested 'pretty radical' script alterations, according to its script notes we obtained through Freedom of Information" (Ex. 2881). Noah's draft says "since the 1940s" for the CIA. The source gives 1996 for the CIA, and 1948 for the Pentagon.

3191. Top Gun and the Navy. Status: Confirmed. "Armed with only an idea for the story but no script, Simpson and Bruckheimer sought cooperation from the U.S. Navy… and were granted full support, including access to the Miramar base." "Navy officials capitalized on the summer hit by setting up booths at select theaters manned with recruiters" (Ex. 2882). Top Gun was a Paramount film, and Paramount is the studio Desilu was folded into.

Her death, the 1996 Act, and the consolidation after 3192. April 18, 1989 surgery: dissecting aortic aneurysm; aorta repaired and valve replaced. Status: Confirmed, with exact wording on length. "On April 18, 1989, Ball was admitted to Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles after experiencing chest pains. She was diagnosed with a dissecting aortic aneurysm near her heart and underwent a 7-hour surgery to repair her aorta and successfully install an aortic valve replacement" (Ex. 1461). Noah's draft says six and a half hours; the sources say seven.

3193. She recovered, then the aorta ruptured. Status: Confirmed. NYT-style obituary: "A hospital spokesman, Ron Wise, said the actress had suffered a rupture of the aorta after having improved steadily from a seven-hour operation" (Ex. 2883). Next lap: the nurse and joke detail.
3194. The rupture was at a different site, and she died April 26. Status: Confirmed (Wikipedia flags part as uncited). "On Wednesday, April 26, while still in the hospital, Ball awoke with severe back pain, then lost consciousness and died at 5:47 a.m. PDT. Doctors determined that she had succumbed to a ruptured abdominal aortic aneurysm. They also learned the area of the aorta operated on the week prior had no bearing on the abdominal tear" (the last sentence is marked "citation needed") (Ex. 1461).
3195. Ball's granddaughter Katharine Luckinbill and the Wachowskis are cousins. Status: Confirmed. Luckinbill and Lucie Arnaz "have three children together: Simon, Joseph and Katharine," and Luckinbill "is the uncle of film directors Lana and Lilly Wachowski, the children of his sister, Lynne" (Ex. 2884). Katharine's father and the Wachowskis' mother are siblings, so they are first cousins.
3196. Telecommunications Act of 1996. Status: Confirmed. "Signed into law by President Bill Clinton on February 8, 1996." Passed "by the House on February 1, 1996 (414-16)… and by the Senate on February 1, 1996 (91-5)." "Heavily supported and lobbied for by major corporations in the telecommunications sector." "Most media ownership regulations were eased, and the cap on radio station ownership was eliminated." Title V kept "Section 230, which shields Internet firms from liability for the speech of their users" (Ex. 1583). Section 230 is the shield in Gonzalez v. Google (listed on the same page).
3197. The effect: consolidation down to six. Status: Confirmed. "The number of American major media content companies shrank from about fifty in 1983 to ten in 1996, and to just six in 2005. An FCC study found that the act led to a drastic decline in the number of radio station owners." Telephone: "by 2001… four major companies owning 85% of all network infrastructure" (Ex. 1583). The six in 2011: "GE, News Corp., Disney, Viacom, Time Warner, and CBS" (Ex. 2885)
3198. Where Desilu's line went: Paramount → Viacom → CBS. Status: Confirmed. Redstone announced "plans to merge with Paramount Communications (formerly Gulf+Western)" in 1993. "The acquisition of Paramount Communications on July 7, 1994, made Viacom one of the world's largest entertainment companies." "On September 7, 1999, Viacom announced their acquisition of CBS Corporation in a $35.9 billion deal… the largest media merger in history at the time." Owner: "National Amusements (80% voting power)" (Ex. 1555)). The Desilu library (Paramount Television) and CBS, Lucy's network, ended up under one owner.
3199. The Matrix plot: humans as batteries. Status: Confirmed. "The machines retaliated by creating vast fields of artificially grown humans, harvesting their bioelectric energy. To pacify their captives, they built the Matrix, a simulated reality" (Ex. 2886). It came out March 31, 1999, the same year as the Viacom–CBS deal.

Prince and Michael Jackson: the ownership fights

3200. Prince's 1992 Warner deal. Status: Confirmed. He re-signed with Warner Bros., "agreeing to what was reportedly a $100 million deal to release six more albums with the label" (Ex. 1515))
3201. The 1993 name change was against Warner. Status: Confirmed. "In 1993, in rebellion against Warner Bros., which insisted upon releasing Prince's backlog of music at a steady pace, Prince formally adopted the symbol as his stage name" (Ex. 1515))
3202. "Slave" written on his face. Status: Confirmed. Warner "delayed the release of The Gold Experience, fearing market saturation. In retaliation, Prince began making public appearances with 'slave' written on his face" (Ex. 1515))
3203. NPG Records, New Power Generation. Status: Confirmed. "'NPG' is short for New Power Generation. It was founded to release his music after Paisley Park Records was shut down by Warner Bros. Records in 1994" (Ex. 2887)
3204. He won back his masters. Status: Confirmed. April 2014: "On April 18, 2014, Prince released a new single entitled 'The Breakdown'. He re-signed with his former label, Warner Bros. Records after an 18-year split… In return, Warner gave Prince ownership of the master recordings of his recordings with the company" (Ex. 1515)) 3205. Prince wore purple his whole career. Status: Partial. His signature song and album are Purple Rain, and he closed the 2007 Super Bowl show with it (Ex. 1515) (page opened; no sentence on it states the row's claim)). Next lap: a source on purple as his lifelong signature color.
3206. Jackson went from Motown to the conglomerate. Status: Confirmed. "The Jackson 5 left Motown in 1975, signing with Epic Records" (Ex. 1754). Epic was a CBS label. Sony agreed to buy CBS Records for about $2B in Nov 1987 and closed in Jan 1988 (search results). The CBS Records page lists the owner as "Sony (1988–1991)" (Ex. 2888).
3207. Jackson bought the Beatles' catalog. Status: Confirmed. "Branca closed the deal and purchased ATV Music on Jackson's behalf for $47.5 million on August 10, 1985." Jackson: "If he didn't want to invest $47.5 million in his own songs, then he shouldn't come crying to me now" (Ex. 2889)
3208. The 1995 Sony merger. Status: Confirmed. "Michael Jackson acquired ATV Music in 1985 and merged it with Sony a decade later." Owners: "Sony Corporation of America (50%) (1995-2012); Michael Jackson (50%) (1995-2009)" (Ex. 2889)
3209. Loans against his stake, and the pressure on it. Status: Confirmed. April 2006: "Michael Jackson has refinanced about $300 million in loans, avoiding possible bankruptcy and foreclosure on his Neverland Ranch… The financial revamp involves Sony Corp.… and lender Fortress Investment Group... the deal reportedly calls for Jackson, 47, to give Sony the option to buy half of his 50 percent share" (Ex. 2890). The loans were secured by his 50% stake (CNN Money 2005, via search; (Ex. 2891) returned 503)

3210. His fight with Sony over his masters. Status: Confirmed. "The release of Invincible was preceded by a dispute between Jackson and his record label, Sony Music Entertainment. He had expected the licenses to the masters of his albums to revert to him in the early 2000s... but clauses in the contract set the revert date years into the future." July 2002: he called Sony Music chairman Tommy Mottola "a racist, and very, very, very devilish" (Ex. 1754)
3211. Where the stake ended up. Status: Confirmed. "In September 2016, Sony acquired the Jackson estate's stake in Sony/ATV in a deal valued at around $750 million" (Ex. 2889)
3212. Jackson at the White House. Status: Confirmed (meeting). Audio on record: "Jackson thanking President Ronald Reagan and First Lady Nancy Reagan at the White House. Recorded May 14, 1984" (Ex. 1754). Bush later "designated him the White House's 'Artist of the Decade'" (same page).

The statistic, as the sources word it

3213. "4 out of every five" Status: Confirmed (regional wording). Oct 10, 2020, WHO's South-East Asia Regional Director Dr. Poonam Khetrapal Singh: "Four out of every five people who require mental health services in the South-East Asia region are unable to access them" (Ex. 2214). Wording difference: the source says South-East Asia region, not the world, and mental health services, not a person who has been through it. The WHO SEARO page itself returned no text to the fetch; open for next lap.
3214. The worldwide figure for psychosis. Status: Confirmed. June 17, 2022, WHO, launching the World Mental Health Report: "71% of those with psychosis worldwide do not receive mental health services. While 70% of people with psychosis are reported to be treated in high-income countries, only 12% of people with psychosis receive mental health care in low-income countries" (Ex. 2290). Wording difference: 71% worldwide is just under 3 in 4. In low-income countries, 88% go without care (100% minus 12%), which is more than 4 in 5.
3215. WHO's current fact sheet. Status: Confirmed. "More than two out of three people with psychosis do not receive specialist mental health care" (Ex. 2892).
3216. Depression. Status: Confirmed. Same 2022 release: "even in high-income countries, only one third of people with depression receive formal mental health care and minimally-adequate treatment for depression is estimated to range from 23% in high-income countries to 3% in low- and lower-middle-income countries" (Ex. 2290).
3217. All mental disorders. Status: Confirmed. "While effective prevention and treatment options exist, most people with mental disorders do not have access to effective care" (Ex. 2893).

The rite of passage and the threshold

3219. The threshold state. Status: Confirmed. Participants "stand at the threshold" between their previous way of structuring identity and a new way that completing the rite establishes. "First developed in the early twentieth century by folklorist Arnold van Gennep and later taken up by Victor Turner." "During liminal periods of all kinds, social hierarchies may be reversed or temporarily dissolved" (Ex. 2895)
3220. "Spiritual emergency" Status: Confirmed. Stanislav and Christina Grof, Spiritual Emergency: When Personal Transformation Becomes a Crisis (J.P. Tarcher, 1989). The Spiritual Emergency Network was founded in 1980 (sources credit both Grofs, or Christina alone), later renamed the Spiritual Emergence Network. It moved to CIIS in 1998, and in 2015 it became part of the Grof Foundation. Christina Grof was in residence at Esalen from 1976 to 1988 ((Ex. 1332); (Ex. 2896)). These are search summaries; the pages are open for next lap.
3221. Psychiatry wrote a category for it. Status: Confirmed. Lukoff, Lu & Turner, "Toward a more culturally sensitive DSM-IV: Psychoreligious and psychospiritual problems," Journal of Nervous and Mental Disease 180 (1992): 673–682. In January 1993 the Task Force accepted it as "Religious or Spiritual Problem" (V62.89), which appeared in DSM-IV in 1994. Lukoff's proposed markers for the code include "good pre-episode functioning; acute onset of symptoms during three months or less… stressful precipitants to the episode; and a positive attitude towards the experience" ((Ex. 1539); (Ex. 2897)). The current DSM-5-TR Z code is open for next lap.

Held-space care for first-episode psychosis

3222. Soteria House. Status: Confirmed. Loren Mosher's Soteria project began in 1971 and compared community residential care with minimal antipsychotics against hospital treatment. Bola & Mosher (J Nerv Ment Dis, 2003) report N = 79 consecutive (1971–76) and N = 100 random (1976–79). Composite outcomes were better at Soteria (+.47 SD, p = .03), and +.81 SD for schizophrenia. "Only 58% of Soteria subjects received antipsychotics during follow-up, and only 19% were continuously maintained." A 2023 Frontiers in Public Health review says the empirical evidence for Soteria's equivalent or better outcomes "is still poor" ((Ex. 2324); (Ex. 2898)). Wikipedia's Soteria page returned 429; open for next lap.
3223. Open Dialogue. Status: Confirmed. The 2026 ODDESSI trial was a multisite cluster-randomised comparison of Peer-supported Open Dialogue with treatment as usual. Open Dialogue participants had "more than three times greater odds of avoiding psychiatric hospital admission (OR 3.30, 95% CI 2.18–5.22)"; "21% of Open Dialogue participants experienced psychiatric inpatient care during follow-up compared with 44% receiving treatment as usual." "No statistically significant difference… in time to relapse following recovery" (54% vs 49% not relapsed at 24 months) (Ex. 2899). The trial paper itself is open for next lap.

Medication, both ways on record

3224. Antipsychotics prevent relapse. Leucht et al., Lancet 2012: relapse at 7–12 months was 27% on drug vs 64% on placebo (RR 0.40, NNT 3). Hospitalisation was 10% vs 26%. Side effects included more weight gain and movement disorders ((Ex. 2900); (Ex. 2901))
3225. Short term, stopping doubles relapse. Wunderink trial, 18 months: "Twice as many relapses occurred with the discontinuation strategy (43% vs. 21%, p = .011). Only approximately 20% were successfully discontinued" (Ex. 1984)
3226. Long term, dose reduction recovers better. Wunderink et al., JAMA Psychiatry 2013, 7-year follow-up: "Dose reduction/discontinuation of antipsychotics during the early stages of remitted FEP shows superior long-term recovery rates compared with the rates achieved with MT" ((Ex. 2902); (Ex. 2903))
3227. Many who stop do not relapse. Kishi et al., Psychological Medicine 2019 (10 RCTs, n = 776): "45.7% of patients who discontinued antipsychotics for 12 months (39.4% after 18–24 months) did not experience a relapse" (Ex. 2134)

Screens and psychosis

3228. Chatbots and delusion, warned early. Status: Confirmed. Søren Dinesen Østergaard, 2023 editorial in Schizophrenia Bulletin, asked whether chatbots could generate delusions in people prone to psychosis. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3229. Clinicians report cases. Status: Confirmed. Aug 2025: UCSF psychiatrist Keith Sakata reported 12 patients hospitalized in 2025 with psychotic breaks linked to heavy AI chatbot use. He called AI "the trigger, but not the gun" ((Ex. 2904); (Ex. 2486))
3230. Its status as a diagnosis. Status: Confirmed. A Dec 2025 peer-reviewed analysis calls "AI psychosis" "a descriptive and heuristic label rather than a proposed diagnostic entity" and says population prevalence is unknown. Not established; no source linked on this line.
3231. Not established: Internet use raises psychosis rates at population scale. The searches found no systematic review or meta-analysis measuring this. 2024 reviews cover social-network interventions and how schizophrenia is portrayed online ((Ex. 2905); (Ex. 2906)). Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Four witnesses on a screen

3232. Two witnesses establish a matter. Status: Confirmed. Deuteronomy 19:15 (KJV): "at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established" (Ex. 2907). The rule is repeated in Matthew 18:16, "But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established," and in 2 Corinthians 13:1 (Ex. 2908).
3233. The rule carried into law. Status: Confirmed. U.S. Constitution, Art. III, §3 (1787): "No Person shall be convicted of Treason unless on the Testimony of two Witnesses to the same overt Act, or on Confession in open Court" (Ex. 122).
3234. A screen narrows what the mind takes in. Status: Confirmed. Brucks & Levav, Nature (2022). In a field experiment across five countries, "videoconferencing inhibits the production of creative ideas." For selecting an idea, they found "no evidence that videoconferencing groups are less effective (and preliminary evidence that they may be more effective)." Their mechanism: "videoconferencing hampers idea generation because it focuses communicators on a screen, which prompts a narrower cognitive focus… virtual interaction comes with a cognitive cost for creative idea generation" (Ex. 2909).
3235. The body's cues are overloaded on video. Status: Confirmed (as theory). Bailenson, "Nonverbal Overload: A Theoretical Argument for the Causes of Zoom Fatigue," Technology, Mind, and Behavior 2(1), 2021. It gives "four arguments": close-up eye gaze, cognitive load from nonverbal cues, the "all day mirror" of self-view, and reduced mobility. In Bailenson's words, the arguments "have yet to be directly tested in the context of Zoom, and require future experimentation to confirm" (Ex. 2219). Wikipedia: "an overload of nonverbal cues and communication that are not normally present in face-to-face conversations" (Ex. 2910).
3236. Screen use and psychotic-like experiences. Status: Confirmed. ABCD cohort, 11,876 adolescents ages 9–12 (Comprehensive Psychiatry, 2024, doi 10.1016/j.comppsych.2024.152509): "Texting and online video usage appear most influential in the development of adolescent PLEs over time." "Online video and TV were influential bridges between screen usage and PLEs" (Ex. 2911).
3237. Media use and psychotic experiences at 23. Status: Confirmed. Paquin et al., JAMA Psychiatry (July 2024), Québec cohort, n = 1,226. A curved computer-use trajectory was associated with higher psychotic experiences (+5.3%, 95% CI +1.5% to +9.3%) after adjustment. Adjusting for risk factors at age 12 mitigated the video-gaming link. Conclusion: media use was "modestly associated with PEs at 23 years of age, likely reflecting the influence of shared risk factors." Social media was not among the measured exposures (TV, gaming, computer, reading) (Ex. 2400).
3238. Not established: Four screen witnesses equal two in a room. No source found that states a doubling rule for remote witnesses. Candidates are remote-witnessing statutes for wills and notarization (e.g., the RULONA and state remote-witnessing laws since 2020) and how many witnesses they require. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Wardenclyffe and the meter

3239. Morgan funded the tower in 1901. Status: Confirmed. "Morgan signed a contract with Tesla in March 1901, agreeing to give the inventor $150,000… to develop and build a wireless station on Long Island, capable of sending wireless messages to London as well as ships at sea. The deal also included Morgan having a 51% interest in the company as well as a 51% share in present and future wireless patents developed from the project" (Ex. 323)
3240. Morgan refused more money. Status: Confirmed. July 1901: Tesla told Morgan of his "planned changes to the project and the need for much more money… With Tesla basically proposing a breach of contract, Morgan refused to lend additional funds and demanded an account of money already spent." Tesla later said "funds were also running short because of Morgan's role in triggering the stock market Panic of 1901" (Ex. 323)

3241. The letters, 1903 onward. Status: Confirmed. Tesla, July 3, 1903: "Will you help me or let my great work — almost complete — go to pots?" Morgan, July 14, 1903: "I have received your letter and in reply would say that I should not feel disposed at present to make any further advances." "Tesla continued to write Morgan trying to get extra funding… Morgan would only reply through his secretary saying it will be impossible for [me/ Morgan] to do anything in the matter." "Investors seemed to be shying away from putting money into a project that J. P. Morgan had abandoned" (Ex. 323)
3242. The end of the tower. Status: Confirmed. "Abandoned in 1906, never to become operational. In an attempt to satisfy Tesla's debts, the tower was demolished for scrap in 1917 and the property taken in foreclosure in 1922" (Ex. 323)
3243. Not established: "Where do I put the meter?" The search found no printed source for the line from Morgan or Tesla. Places to look: Quote Investigator, the Tesla–Morgan letters at the Morgan Library, and the Tesla biographies by O'Neill (1944), Cheney (1981) and Seifer (1996), for the line's earliest appearance. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3244. Tesla's papers seized. Status: Confirmed. Tesla died Jan 7, 1943. His nephew Sava Kosanović was a non-citizen, so "the Federal Bureau of Investigation asked the Office of Alien Property Custodian to seize Tesla's belongings two days after his death. John G. Trump, an electrical engineering professor at MIT serving as a technical aide to the National Defense Research Committee, was called in… After a three-day investigation, Trump's report concluded that there was nothing which would 'constitute a hazard in unfriendly hands.'" In the box said to hold a "death ray," "Trump found a 45-year-old multidecade resistance box" (Ex. 584)

The bank today

3245. The 2000 merger. Status: Confirmed. JPMorgan Chase "was created in 2000 by the merger of New York City banks J.P. Morgan & Co. and Chase Manhattan Company." Founded "December 1, 2000." "J.P. Morgan & Co. was founded in 1871 by the American financier J. P. Morgan" (Ex. 2912)
3246. Its rank. Status: Confirmed. "JPMorgan Chase & Co. (stylized as JPMorganChase) is an American multinational banking institution headquartered in New York City and incorporated in Delaware. It is the largest bank in the United States, and the world's largest bank by market capitalization as of 2026." "The world's fifth-largest bank by total assets, with $4 trillion in assets as of 2026." Total assets were US$4.425 trillion in 2026 (Ex. 2912). Wording difference: it is largest in the U.S. and by market capitalization, and fifth worldwide by assets.
3247. Its transaction volume. Status: Confirmed (company's own figure). "$12 TRILLION In daily payments processed," "160+ Countries," "120+ Currencies," per "JPMC proprietary data 2025" (Ex. 2913). Whether this is more than any institution on earth is open for next lap: no ranking source was opened.
3248. JPM Coin, Onyx, Kinexys. Status: Confirmed. JPM Coin was "announced in February 2019 as an institution-to-institution service… a dollar-backed… stablecoin." "As of October 2023, JPM Coin is used for approximately $1 billion of transactions each day." "In November of 2024, Onyx and the JPM Coin were rebranded… Kinexys and Kinexys Digital Payments" (Ex. 2914). The bank's Kinexys page: "10+ years developing institutional-grade blockchain solutions," ">$3 trillion in transaction volume across Kinexys since inception," ">$7 billion in average daily transaction volume" (Ex. 2915)
3249. Not established: A Morgan family role at the bank today. The 2026 leaders listed are Jamie Dimon (chairman and CEO), Jennifer Piepszak (COO) and Daniel E. Pinto (president) (Ex. 2916). No source opened names a Morgan descendant as an officer, director or holder. The next step is the bank's 2026 proxy statement on SEC EDGAR. One family line on record: J.P. Morgan Jr.'s son Henry Sturgis Morgan (1900–1982) co-founded Morgan Stanley, a separate firm (Ex. 2917). Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Morgan and the First World War

3250. Which Morgan. Status: Confirmed. J. P. Morgan Sr. died "March 31, 1913… Rome" (Ex. 2918). "After his father died in 1913, the bank became [J.P. Morgan Jr.'s] base" (Ex. 2919). So the 1901 Tesla contract is Sr.'s, and the war loans and the 1920s plans are Jr.'s firm's.
3251. The Allies' purchasing agent. Status: Confirmed. "From 1915 until sometime after the United States entered the war, his firm was the official purchasing agent for the British government, buying cotton, steel, chemicals and food, receiving a 1% commission on all purchases." "By 1915… the company decided to forge formal relationships with France" (Ex. 2919). "The Bank of England became a fiscal agent of J.P. Morgan & Co. and vice versa." "Over the course of the war, J.P. Morgan loaned about $1.5 billion… to the Allies to fight against the Germans. The company also invested in the suppliers of war equipment to Britain and France" (Ex. 2920). The exact January 1915 agreement date is open for next lap.
3252. The Anglo-French loan. Status: Confirmed. "In 1915, a loan of $500,000,000 was made to France and Britain following negotiations by the Anglo-French Financial Commission." "Morgan organized a syndicate of about 2200 banks." NYT, Sept 24, 1915, p. 1: "$500,000,000 Fixed as Allies' Credit – Lord Reading of Anglo-French Commission Meets Bankers in Morgan Library." Morgan also "made the first loan of $12,000,000 to Russia" (Ex. 2919)
3253. Ties to Germany. Status: Partial. 1905: "a close alliance was formed with the banking house of J. P. Morgan & Co., New York, for joint action in international finance and issue operations, particularly the absorption of American securities by German investors with the Dresdner Bank" (marked citation needed on (Ex. 2920)). Sources opened tie the wartime loans to the Allies "to fight against the Germans." Open for next lap: any Morgan loan to Germany or Austria-Hungary in 1914–18.
3254. Jekyll Island, Nov 1910. Status: Confirmed. "In November 1910, six men—Nelson Aldrich, A. Piatt Andrew, Henry Davison, Arthur Shelton, Frank Vanderlip and Paul Warburg—met at the Jekyll Island Club, off the coast of Georgia, to write a plan to reform the nation's banking system. The meeting and its purpose were closely guarded secrets." Davison was "a partner at J.P. Morgan" (Ex. 2921)
3255. The Federal Reserve Act. Status: Confirmed. "Passed by the 63rd United States Congress and signed into law by President Woodrow Wilson on December 23, 1913. The law created the Federal Reserve System." Senate vote 43–25 that day (Ex. 378). J.P. Morgan Jr. sat on "the advisory council for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York" from 1914 to 1919 (Ex. 2919).

3256. The shooting, July 3, 1915. Status: Confirmed. "An assassin, Eric Muenter, entered Morgan's mansion… in Glen Cove, Long Island, and shot him twice. This was ostensibly to bring about an embargo on arms, and in protest of his profiteering from war" (Ex. 2919)

3257. Reparations and the Dawes and Young plans. Status: Confirmed. Thomas W. Lamont, Morgan partner, and Norman H. Davis "were appointed as representatives of the Treasury Department to the Paris Peace Conference and had to determine what Germany had to pay in reparations. He participated in the committees that drew up the 1924 Dawes Plan and the 1929 Young Plan" (Ex. 2922). "After World War I and the Versailles Treaty, Morgan Guaranty managed Germany's reparation payments"; by the 1920s it was "a leading lender to Germany and Europe" (Ex. 2919). Dawes Plan (1924): Germany was loaned 800 million Reichsmarks, "about half of the sum was raised through Wall Street bond issues." The U.S. feared its war loans to France and England, "the repayment of which was in large part dependent on the receipt of German reparations," might never be recovered (Ex. 2923). Young Plan (Paris, Feb–June 1929): "36 billion Reichsmarks payable through 1988," in effect May 17, 1930, suspended by the Hoover Moratorium in June 1931 (Ex. 2924). Wording difference: "Morgan Guaranty" is the source's name for the firm, which merged under that name in 1959.

3258. The Nye Committee. Status: Confirmed. Special Committee on Investigation of the Munitions Industry, "April 12, 1934 – February 24, 1936… investigated the financial and banking interests that underlay the United States' involvement in World War I." "93 hearings… more than 200 witnesses." Tansill's America Goes To War (1938) used its record to show "the heavy influence exercised by Wall Street finance (notably J.P. Morgan)." Funding was cut off in early 1936 "after Chairman Nye blundered into an attack on the late Democratic President Woodrow Wilson" (Ex. 2925). J.P. Morgan Jr.'s own testimony dates are open for next lap.

The Morgans' religion and marriages

3259. J.P. Morgan Sr.'s religion. Status: Confirmed. "Morgan was a lifelong member of the Episcopal Church, and by 1890 was one of its most influential leaders." He was "a founding member of the Church Club of New York, an Episcopal private member's club," and "one of the first laymen on the committee that created the 1892 revision of the Book of Common Prayer." In 1910 he gave $100,000 toward the Episcopal Church's world conference on "faith and order." "'Remember,' J.S. Morgan wrote his son, '…that there is an Eye above that is ever upon you" (Ex. 2918). His funeral was held at St. George's Church, where he had been a deacon (Ex. 2926).

3260. First wife: Amelia Sturges. Status: Partial. "In October 1861, Morgan married Amelia 'Memi' Sturges (1835–1862) at her home on 5 East Fourteenth Street… a small private ceremony." She had tuberculosis and "died in Nice in February 1862, four months and ten days after their marriage" (Ex. 2918). The Morgan Library names her as the daughter of arts patron Jonathan Sturges (search summary). Her religion: open for next lap. No source opened states it.

3261. Second wife: Frances Louisa Tracy. Status: Partial. "On May 31, 1865, Morgan married Frances Louisa 'Fanny' Tracy (1842–1924), whom he met at St. George's Church" (Ex. 2918). Her father was New York lawyer Charles Tracy (1810–1885) (genealogy sources, search summary). The wedding church and her own religion: open for next lap.

3262. J.P. Morgan Jr.'s religion. Status: Confirmed. He "supported… the Episcopal Church" (Ex. 2919)

3263. His wife: Jane Norton Grew. Status: Confirmed. She was born in Boston, the daughter of "Henry Sturgis Grew" (a Boston banker and mill owner) and "Jane Norton Wigglesworth." "On December 11 1890, Grew married John Pierpont Morgan Jr.…. The ceremony took place at Arlington Street Church in Boston" (Ex. 2927). "Arlington Street Church is a Unitarian Universalist church across from the Public Garden in Boston" (Ex. 2928). Wording difference: the source names the church's denomination today, not her own creed. Her religion: open for next lap.

Marriage as meeting

3264. Marriage as alliance: the Habsburgs. Status: Confirmed. "Bella gerant alii, tu felix Austria nube – 'Let others wage war: thou, happy Austria, marry'… quoted when the rise of the Habsburgs is put down to the success of their dynastic marriage policy, in which young archdukes and archduchesses were frequently married off as children… or indeed to relatives of their own. Emperor Maximilian I… through his own marriage and those of his son Philip the Fair and his grandson Ferdinand, the dynasty gained Burgundy, Spain, Bohemia, and Hungary." The same page: "the famous saying ignores the many strokes of luck… Wars were an equally important element of Habsburg policy as marriages" (Ex. 2929). The 1515 Vienna double wedding brought Bohemia and Hungary through "marriages of four children and a slice of good luck" (Ex. 2930). Author of the line: "Forfatteren av sentensen er ukjent" (the author is unknown) (Ex. 2931).

3265. Five houses, five cities. Status: Confirmed. Mayer Amschel Rothschild of Frankfurt, banking from the 1760s, built "an international banking family through his five sons, who established businesses in Paris, Frankfurt, London, Vienna, and Naples." The coat of arms has "a clenched fist with five arrows symbolising the five dynasties" (Ex. 2932)

3266. They married across their own branches. Status: Confirmed. "Mayer Rothschild successfully kept the fortune in the family with carefully arranged marriages, often between first- or second-cousins (similar to royal intermarriage). By the late 19th century, however, almost all Rothschilds had started to marry outside the family, usually into the aristocracy or other financial dynasties." Example: Adelheid von Rothschild (1853–1935), of the Naples branch, was the wife and cousin of Edmond of the Paris branch (Ex. 2932)

3267. Ten Sefirot, twenty-two paths. Status: Confirmed. The sefirot "are the ten emanations or creative attributes of God in Kabbalah… understood not as ten gods but rather as ten channels through which the one God reveals his will" (Ex. 2933). "The tree of life usually consists of 10 or 11 nodes symbolizing different archetypes and 22 paths connecting the nodes" (citing Scholem 1987, page marked "needed") (Ex. 2934)). The count comes from Sefer Yetzirah: "By thirty-two mysterious paths of wisdom… ten calibrations of empty space and twenty-two letters [of the Hebrew alphabet]" (Ex. 2935). The Scholem page itself is open for next lap.

3268. Cosa Nostra, "our thing" Status: Confirmed. "According to Mafia turncoats (pentiti), the real name of the Mafia is 'Cosa Nostra' ('Our Thing')." Joseph Valachi testified to a Senate subcommittee in 1963 that American mafiosi used "cosa nostra ('our thing' or 'this thing of ours')". "The FBI added the article la to the term, calling it La Cosa Nostra (in Italy, the article la is not used…)." In 1984 Tommaso

Buscetta told Giovanni Falcone that the Sicilian Mafia used the term too. "The basic group is known as a 'family', 'clan', or cosca" (Ex. 908)

3269. "The mafia is a family. Literally." Status: Partial. American Mafia: "The most important unit of the American Mafia is that of a 'family'… Despite the name of 'family' to describe the various units, they are not familial groupings" (Ex. 2936). Wording difference: the source says the "family" is the unit's name, not a blood group.

3270. Membership is made and proved by witnesses. Status: Confirmed. "Sociologist Diego Gambetta points out that the Mafia, being a secretive criminal organization, cannot risk having its recruits sign application forms and written contracts that might be seized by the police. Thus they rely on the old-fashioned ritual ceremony… the ceremony is witnessed by a number of senior mafiosi… The real point of the ritual is to leave no doubt about the mafioso's new status." "A mafioso must never introduce himself to another mafioso whom he does not personally know… he must ask a third mafioso whom they both personally know to introduce them to each other in a face-to-face meeting. This intermediary can vouch." In the 1950s Indelicato Amedeo, initiated in the U.S., "could not announce his membership to his own mafioso father but had to wait for a mafioso from the United States who knew of his induction to come to Sicily and introduce the son to the father." Salvatore Lo Piccolo's "Ten Commandments," found Nov 2007: "No one can present himself directly to another of our friends. There must be a third" (Ex. 908)

3271. The five families, as organized in 1931. Status: Confirmed. "In 1931, the Five Families were organized by Salvatore Maranzano following his victory in the Castellammarese War… now known as the Bonanno, Colombo, Gambino, Genovese, and Lucchese families." Luciano then set up the Commission, made up of the five bosses plus Chicago and Buffalo (Ex. 2937)

3272. Apalachin, Nov 14, 1957. Status: Confirmed. "On November 14, 1957, the mafia bosses, their advisers and bodyguards, approximately one hundred men in all, met at Barbara's 53-acre (21 ha) estate in Apalachin, New York." State trooper Edgar D. Croswell's police raided it; "more than 60 underworld bosses were detained." It "helped to confirm the existence of a nationwide criminal conspiracy, a fact that some, including... J. Edgar Hoover, had long refused to acknowledge." Hoover then created the "Top Hoodlum Program" (Ex. 2938)

3273. Valachi names it on the record, 1963. Status: Confirmed. Valachi was "inducted as a made man" in 1930. "In October 1963, Valachi testified before Arkansas Senator John L. McClellan's Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations… stating that the Italian-American Mafia actually existed, the first time a member had acknowledged its existence in public… the first major violation of omertà, breaking his blood oath… credited with the popularization of the term cosa nostra" (Ex. 2939). "In 1963, Joseph Valachi publicly disclosed the existence of New York City's Five Families at the Valachi hearings" (Ex. 2937). Wording difference: the source dates the testimony to October 1963. The September 27 opening date is open for next lap.

3274. Fratianno. Status: Confirmed. Acting boss of the Los Angeles family. "After his arrest in 1977, Fratianno became an informant and entered the Witness Protection Program in 1980." "In 1980, after his testimony resulted in the racketeering convictions of five reputedly high level Mafia figures" (Ex. 2940)

3275. Gravano. Status: Confirmed. Gambino underboss. "In 1991, Gravano agreed to turn state's evidence and testify for the prosecution against Gotti… among the highest-ranking members of the Five Families to break his blood oath… As a result of his testimonies, Gotti and Frank LoCascio were sentenced to life imprisonment without the possibility of parole in 1992." He confessed to "at least 19 murders" (Ex. 2941)

3276. Cartels run by blood. Status: Confirmed. Tijuana Cartel: "The Arellano Félix family was initially composed of seven brothers and four sisters, who inherited the organization from Miguel Ángel Félix Gallardo upon his incarceration in Mexico in 1989." Félix Gallardo's organization split three ways, including "the Tijuana Cartel led by his nephews, the Arellano Félix brothers" (Ex. 2942). Beltrán Leyva: "formerly headed by the five Beltrán Leyva brothers," who "worked closely with their cousin, Joaquín 'El Chapo' Guzmán." Later the brothers "blamed their partner and cousin… Guzmán for their brother's arrest" and ordered his son's killing (Ex. 2943). Marriage ties inside cartels are open for next lap.

3277. Not established: Families carrying Kabbalah married it into banking and the underworld. None of the pages opened for this section states a link between Kabbalah and these families' marriages, banking or crime: Rothschild family, Sefirot, Tree of life, Sefer Yetzirah, Sicilian Mafia, American Mafia, Tijuana Cartel, Beltrán-Leyva. A record would have to name a family, a marriage and its use of the Tree. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Comedy and the edge

3278. A joke collapses two categories. Status: Confirmed. "Incongruity theory… suggests that humor and laughter rely on incongruity, which denotes anything contrary to expectation according to some norm." "three theories of humor appear repeatedly: relief theory, superiority theory, and incongruity theory. Among current humor researchers, there is yet no consensus about which of these three theories of humor is most valid, though the incongruity theory is the most predominant." "Arthur Koestler argues that humor results when two different frames of reference are set up and a collision is engineered between them" (Ex. 2944)

3279. Humor at the edge: benign violation. Status: Confirmed. McGraw and Warren's benign violation theory (Psychological Science, 2010) "claims that humor occurs when three conditions are satisfied: Something threatens one's sense of how the world 'ought to be.' The threatening situation seems benign. A person sees both interpretations at the same time." Violations include "moral norms (e.g., disrespectful behaviors)." In their test, many people were "disgusted" by a church raffling a Hummer and "simultaneously amused," and churchgoers were less amused (Ex. 2944). The 2010 paper itself is open for next lap.

3280. Rogan's format. Status: Confirmed. Started "December 24, 2009, on YouTube by Rogan and comedian Brian Redban." Episodes run "1–5+ hours." 2,555 episodes as of Sept 18, 2026. Guests range from Elon Musk and Alex Jones to Edward Snowden, Bernie Sanders, Neil deGrasse Tyson and Donald Trump (Ex. 2945)

3281. Spotify: sale or license. Status: Confirmed. "In May 2020, Rogan announced that starting September 2020, The Joe Rogan Experience would be available on Spotify in an exclusive licensing deal worth an estimated $200 million." It was Spotify-exclusive from Dec 2020 to Feb 2024. "In February 2024, Spotify signed Rogan to a new $250 million contract but announced his show would not be exclusive to its service and instead be available to other platforms." It returned to Apple Podcasts and YouTube (Ex. 2945). Wording: the source calls the 2020 deal a license, not a sale, and the 2024 deal a non-exclusive contract.

3282. Palantir's name. Status: Confirmed. "Thiel named the startup after the 'seeing stone' in J. R. R. Tolkien's legendarium. Likewise, Palantir's office locations have names from Tolkien: The Shire (Palo Alto, California), Rivendell (McLean, Virginia), and Grey Havens (London)" (Ex. 1778). The company's own statement of the name is open for next lap.
3283. Palantir's founding and defense work. Status: Confirmed. Founded May 6, 2003 by Thiel, Stephen Cohen, Joe Lonsdale, Alex Karp and Nathan Gettings. Thiel is chairman. "CIA-affiliated venture capital firm In-Q-Tel invested about $2 million." Gotham "is an intelligence tool used by militaries and counter-terrorism analysts, including the United States Intelligence Community and United States Department of Defense." As of May 2025, the second Trump administration had "$113 million on existing and new contracts with the Department of Homeland Security and The Pentagon plus a contract of $795 million with the DOD." TITAN, built with Anduril and Northrop Grumman: "Palantir is under contract to deliver 10 units to the U.S. Army" (Ex. 2946)
3284. Thiel's other defense positions. Status: Confirmed. Founders Fund "focuses on defense-related startups and technology." It led Anduril's 2017 seed round, and its $1 billion in Anduril in June 2025 "was the largest investment in the fund's history." In December 2024, "Palantir and Anduril were forming a consortium of new generation defense companies (which included SpaceX, OpenAI, Scale AI…)" (Ex. 2847)
3285. Thiel funded the Gawker case. Status: Confirmed. March 18, 2016: the jury awarded Bollea "$115 million in compensatory damages," plus "$25 million in punitive damages on March 21." "Thiel… paid $10 million to help finance lawsuits against Gawker Media, including the Bollea lawsuit. The idea had been brought to him by… Aron D'Souza." Thiel called it "one of my greater philanthropic things that I've done" (Ex. 2947). "In May 2016, Thiel confirmed in an interview with The New York Times that he had paid $10 million" (Ex. 2847). Gawker filed for Chapter 11 on June 10, 2016, saying it "could not afford to pay the $140.1 million judgment." Univision bought its assets "for $135 million at a bankruptcy auction on August 16, 2016." The case was settled for $31 million on November 2, 2016 (Ex. 2947).
3286. Thiel at Rogan's table. Status: Confirmed. JRE #2190, Peter Thiel, released August 16, 2024, 210 minutes (Ex. 2412). Thiel is listed among the show's business guests (Ex. 2948). Other Thiel–Rogan meetings: open for next lap.
3287. Not established: Ball and comedy as a trainer. No source was opened for a stated aim to train audiences through comedy. The Ball rows at the top of this file cover her format, the network rules and HUAC. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Extraction and refusal

3288. The WIPO GRATK Treaty. Status: Confirmed. "Concluded at the headquarters of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) in Geneva, Switzerland, on 24 May 2024." "Once it enters into force with 15 contracting parties, [it] will establish in international law a new disclosure requirement for patent applicants whose inventions are based on genetic resources and/or associated traditional knowledge." It is "the first WIPO Treaty to include provisions specifically for Indigenous Peoples." Its aim is "indirectly to combat biopiracy." The Indigenous Caucus called it a "first step towards guaranteeing just and transparent access." Signatories: 44 by May 24, 2025, and 45 by June 2026. Status: "not in force." Condition: "three months after 15 ratifications or accessions." The table lists ratification or accession dates for Malawi (Dec 5, 2024), Uganda (Jul 9, 2025), Albania (Mar 13, 2026) and Peru (Jul 8, 2026) (Ex. 2949). Wording difference: the treaty is a disclosure duty for patent applicants. It is not a ban, and it does not cover AI training. The WIPO page returned 404, so it is open for next lap.
3289. Free, prior and informed consent. Status: Confirmed. UNDRIP was adopted Sept 13, 2007 by "144 states in favour, 4 votes against (Australia, Canada, New Zealand and the United States) and 11 abstentions." The four later "reversed their position" (Ex. 2950). Art. 31: "Indigenous peoples have the right to maintain, control, protect and develop their cultural heritage, traditional knowledge… including human and genetic resources, seeds, medicines, knowledge of the properties of fauna and flora, oral traditions… They also have the right to maintain, control, protect and develop their intellectual property over such cultural heritage." Art. 19 gives the FPIC wording: States "obtain their free, prior and informed consent before adopting and implementing legislative or administrative measures that may affect them" (Ex. 2951). Wording difference: Art. 31 states the knowledge right. The FPIC phrase is in Arts. 19 and 32, and it binds States, not companies.
3290. CARE Principles and data sovereignty. Status: Confirmed. "The CARE principles of Indigenous data governance have been created by the Global Indigenous Data Alliance (GIDA 2019) as a framework for open data initiatives in incorporating Indigenous data sovereignty… an extension of the FAIR principles… people and purpose oriented rather than data oriented." Published in Data Science Journal 19:43 (Nov 4, 2020) (Ex. 2952). Te Hiku Media (Aotearoa): "All partnerships with external agencies are protected under the Kaitiakitanga license, which ensures that data sovereignty remains within local communities and prohibits the use of data in applications that surveil, discriminate, or violate human rights." Peter-Lucas Jones: "Data is the new land. Having had our land taken off us… we take data sovereignty very seriously." Keoni Mahelona: "rather than big tech gobbling up our data and selling it back to us, we should empower communities to lead their own platforms" (Ex. 2953)
3291. Indigenous language in a training set without consent. Status: Confirmed (as the community states it). Papa Reo (Te Hiku), "OpenAI's Whisper is another case study in Colonisation," Jan 24, 2023: "On 21 September OpenAI dropped Whisper, a speech recognition model trained on 680,000 h[ours]… The Whisper model was trained with 1381 hours of te reo Māori and 338 hours of ʻōlelo Hawaiʻi. The paper doesn't explicitly state where this data was taken from, but one can infer the data was scraped from the web." "Companies like OpenAI, Google, and Meta extracting data and creating AI models without consent shares many parallels with Imperialism" (Ex. 2319). On Hugging Face (Feb 2023), a request was posted to have the language "removed from the training set," citing the post (Ex. 2954). OpenAI's reply: open for next lap.
3292. Not established: "Data laundering" in legal scholarship. No law-review use of the term was found. Closest: a Substack post titled "Data Laundering" on Books3 and Common Crawl (Ex. 2955), and a 2025 study of a web-scraped dataset that argues "publicly available" should be reconsidered (Ex. 2956). Not opened. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3293. AI refuses plant and medicine answers. Status: Partial. "Forbidden Science" (arXiv, Feb 8, 2025) tested refusals "across mainly controlled substance queries": "Claude-3.5-sonnet demonstrated the most conservative approach with 73% refusals… Mistral attempted to answer 100%… GPT-3.5-turbo… 10% refusals… Grok-2… 20% refusals." It warns of "potential over-censorship of legitimate scientific inquiry" (Ex. 2456). Wording difference: the study covers controlled substances, not ethnobotany or Indigenous knowledge as such. No published provider policy naming medicinal plants or ethnobotany was found, so that is open for next lap.

Seyfried, in her own words on record

3294. Fired early from As the World Turns Status: Confirmed. "From 2000 to 2001 she played the recurring character Lucy Montgomery on the CBS soap opera As the World Turns" (Ex. 2957). "Seyfried is also the first to admit that she wasn't particularly good at acting when she was a teen. For that reason, she got fired pretty swiftly from 'As the World Turns,' only appearing on 16 episodes." "And she knows she was let go due to her acting quality. As she told Backstage, 'It was absolutely, without a doubt, because I was that bad. I was so uncomfortable." On the set: "Not that anyone was being mean to me… And I was a 15-year-old who wanted to be an actor" (Ex. 2958)
3295. Pressure to shoot nude at 19. Status: Confirmed. To Porter, reported Aug 9, 2022: "Being 19, walking around without my underwear on – like, are you kidding me? How did I let that happen?… Oh, I know why: I was 19 and I didn't want to upset anybody, and I wanted to keep my job. That's why" (Ex. 2296)
3296. The farm, and Hollywood as "tricky" Status: Confirmed. "Seyfried bought her farm in upstate New York in 2014, moving there with her family in 2020." On CBS Sunday Morning: "Hollywood is really … it's tricky, and it's got a lot of personalities. There are a lot of people that are working in a way that doesn't necessarily make it feel like a safe place." "Amanda Seyfried has no regrets about ditching Hollywood for a peaceful life in her 1930s farmhouse on the East Coast… 'This is exactly what I have always wanted." To Forbes: "Staying here was the best decision for privacy, peace and nature" (Ex. 2959)
3297. OCD diagnosis and medication. Status: Confirmed. "At 19 years old… she was officially diagnosed with obsessive compulsive disorder, as she revealed to Vogue in 2026." In her words: "I got my brain scans, and that's when I got on medication — which to this day, I'm on every night." To Allure (2016) on Lexapro: "If you can treat it, you treat it" (Ex. 2958)
3298. Not established: "I never had many famous friends" The line is not in the seven sources opened. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3299. The Housemaid and her Nina. Status: Confirmed. Paul Feig's film of Freida McFadden's novel was shown at CinemaCon on Apr 2, 2025: "Amanda Seyfried plays her employer Nina, an emotionally erratic woman." Seyfried: "I got to go to places that I never expected to go to" (Ex. 2468). Release: "will now hit cinemas on 19th December" (Ex. 2501). Daily Beast review, Dec 16, 2025: "Sydney Sweeney and Amanda Seyfried Go Bonkers in 'The Housemaid'" (Ex. 2960). "Punishments and threats" is not in the opened pages; open for next lap. The Landmark Cinemas page returned 403.

The Theranos board

3300. Holmes founded it at 19. Status: Confirmed. Born Feb 3, 1984. "In 2003, Holmes founded the company Real-Time Cures in Palo Alto." In 2004 she "dropped out of Stanford's School of Engineering and used her tuition money as seed funding" (Ex. 2961)
3301. Shultz recruited the board. Status: Confirmed. July 2011: Holmes "finagled an introduction to George Shultz… at Stanford's Hoover Institution… Their scheduled 10-minute interview lasted 2½ hours… He joined Theranos's board that same month." "Nearly all the other outside directors on Theranos's board are people who were introduced to the company through Shultz": Perry, Kissinger, Nunn, Frist ("a heart-transplant surgeon"), Adm. Gary Roughead, Gen. James Mattis, Kovacevich and Riley Bechtel (Ex. 2962). Wording difference: Frist is a surgeon, so the 2014 board had one physician. The criticism on record is "mainly of directors with diplomatic or military backgrounds" (Ex. 2963).
3302. A medical board added. Status: Confirmed. "In April 2016, Theranos announced its medical advisory board, which included past presidents or board members of the American Association for Clinical Chemistry" (Ex. 2963). After the October 2015 WSJ reporting, "Theranos moved many of those members onto a board of counselors and later made a scientific and medical advisory board" (Ex. 2964).
3303. The counselors retired. Status: Confirmed. Dec 2, 2016: "In 2017, the company said, the board of counselors will be retired." It "consisted mostly of former directors with strong government connections but little scientific experience." Leaving: Kissinger, Nunn, Perry, Shultz and Roughead (Ex. 2964). It was "announced in November 2016 that the celebrity-studded 'board of counselors' would be scrapped in January 2017." Bechtel departed in December 2016 (Ex. 2963).
3304. Mattis's exit. Status: Confirmed. Dec 2016: Mattis, "President-elect Donald Trump's pick for secretary of defense, will stay on the company's board of directors" (Ex. 2964). "In January 2017, incoming U.S. Secretary of Defense nominee James Mattis resigned from the Theranos board" (Ex. 2963). Wording difference: he left the board before taking office. He did not stay on as Secretary.
3305. Board members charged or testifying. Status: Confirmed. The SEC charged "Theranos, Holmes, and former company president Sunny Balwani… in 2018" (Ex. 2963). No board member is named as charged in the sources opened. Mattis testified for the prosecution on Sept 22, 2021, the trial's sixth day. He said Holmes misled him and that he had invested $85,000 ((Ex. 2965) (Feb 6, 2021), before trial (Ex. 2966). His grandson Tyler Shultz, a Theranos employee, "was a key source for the WSJ story" (Ex. 2963).
3306. Conviction, sentence, prison. Status: Confirmed. "On January 3, 2022, the jury found Holmes guilty on four of the seven counts related to defrauding investors." She was found not guilty on the patient counts. Sentenced to "11 + 1⁄4 years" and $452 million restitution with Balwani. "Holmes reported to prison on May 30, 2023" at Federal Prison Camp, Bryan, Texas. "In March 2026, Judge Davila reduced Holmes's sentence by 12 months." On Sept 22, 2026, the BOP approved a transfer to the Austin Transitional Center halfway house on Aug 23, 2027. Her scheduled release is Feb 22, 2030 (Ex. 2961). She has been campaigning for a Trump pardon since Dec 2025 (same source).

You Can See Everything* (2026)

3307. Release, studio, director. Status: Confirmed. Directed by Nathan Fielder and Lance Oppenheim, distributed by A24. It "premiered as a secret screening at the 53rd Telluride Film Festival on September 6, 2026, and was theatrically released by A24 on October 16."

Running time 174 minutes, budget $7 million (Ex. 2967)

308. Opening gross and rank. Status: Confirmed, with exact figure. "You Can See Everything was released alongside Whalefall, Street Fighter, and Sense and Sensibility… It went on to debut to $15.6 million, finishing second at the box office behind Street Fighter. It was the second-best ever opening weekend for a documentary behind Fahrenheit 9/11 ($23.9 million in 2004)" (Ex. 2967). Wording difference: the figure is $15.6M.
309. Rotten Tomatoes. Status: Confirmed. "An approval rating of 98% based on 140 reviews, with an average rating of 9.3/10" (Ex. 2967)
310. When and where Holmes was filmed. Status: Confirmed. "In April 2023, Holmes and her partner Billy Evans invited the film crew to live at home with them and their children during the 34 days prior to Holmes beginning her prison sentence. Principal photography began at Holmes and Evans's rented beach house in Del Mar, California." Before filming, "Evans requested a cut of the documentary's profit," and the filmmakers "negotiated a profit-sharing agreement with him" (Ex. 2967)
311. Seyfried in the film. Status: Confirmed. "Fielder's friend Emma Stone introduced him to actress Amanda Seyfried… With Seyfried's permission, Fielder and Oppenheim filmed her reaction to the Del Mar footage… Seyfried appears in the documentary both as herself and in her role as Holmes," in reenactments of conversations they could not film (Ex. 2967). Wording difference: Seyfried is in this film too.
312. Not established: Jennifer Lawrence's earlier project. Not in the six pages opened. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
313. Tyler Shultz in STAT, Oct 19, 2026. Status: Confirmed. Headline: "I was a Theranos whistleblower. In 'You Can See Everything,' Elizabeth Holmes is still lying." "'You Can See Everything' is a hilarious, thrilling, fascinating, beautiful piece of art. What it certainly is not is a documentary, and it's dangerous to pretend that it is." "My grandfather sat on her board, she came to my family holidays and birthday parties." On the device: "Back to the Theranos device itself. During that scene, my wife had to squeeze my arm to prevent me from jumping out of my seat in the theater and screaming, 'THAT IS NOT THE DEVICE… not the device we hid from regulators… not the device we used to knowingly give patients inaccurate medical results… Elizabeth showed him a future version of the Theranos product that was never completed and never used." "The actual device we used, called the 'Edison,' could only run one blood test at a time" (Ex. 2658)
314. Fortune, Oct 20, 2026. Status: Confirmed. Shultz on CBS Mornings: "The Elizabeth that I knew completely commanded a room, even if that room was full of secretaries of state, secretaries of defense, generals, senators. She would own a room." Fortune: "Now, he said, she looks like 'a broken woman.'" and "Years after the Theranos scandal erupted, Holmes still maintains she never lied, despite her 2022 conviction for defrauding investors. Tyler Shultz… barely recognized the woman on-screen… But he still doesn't feel she's owning up to her mistakes" (Ex. 2659). The film's Wikipedia page: Shultz "praised the documentary's artistic merit but qu[estioned]" it (Ex. 2967).
315. Tyler and George Shultz, 2013–2016. Status: Confirmed. Tyler met Holmes "through his grandfather… The three were speaking together in Shultz's grandfather's living room," and George "encouraged him" to intern (2013). His reporting "informed a string of Wall Street Journal articles by John Carreyrou… starting in 2015. At the time, Shultz was under legal pressure to stay quiet. In 2016, however, Shultz's identity was revealed… by his own decision," and he "faced a lawsuit from Theranos." "At first… his grandfather sided with Holmes; the two didn't speak for several months." Tyler: "The toll it took on my grandfather's relationship was probably the worst." "The two eventually reconciled, with Shultz's grandfather recognizing the rightness of his position and showing pride in his decisions." Tyler "wishes he had taken his information directly to the SEC and… understands his relationship with his grandfather likely influenced his decision not to do so." At trial, "Shultz was considered as a potential witness but was ultimately not called" ((Ex. 2068), citing Carreyrou, WSJ, Nov 16, 2016). George Shultz's own statements from 2015–16: open for next lap.
316. Kissinger and Mattis after the board. Status: Confirmed. Kissinger "died from heart failure at his home in Kent, Connecticut, on November 29, 2023, at the age of 100" (Ex. 2968). Mattis was the 26th Secretary of Defense, "January 20, 2017 – January 1, 2019." He resigned with a date "effective the end of February 2019," and "Trump abruptly accelerated Mattis's departure date to January 1, 2019" (Ex. 2969). No charge against either appears in the sources opened.
317. The Dropout Status: Confirmed. Hulu miniseries created by Elizabeth Meriwether, "March 3 (2022) – April 7, 2022," with Holmes "played by Amanda Seyfried." It was produced by 20th Television and Searchlight Television (Ex. 2970)

The Theranos patents, the two devices, and the finger prick

318. Trial exhibit 10691. Status: Confirmed. Title: "U.S. Issued Patents Assigned to Theranos/Theranos IP Company." The file served holds pages 1–3 of 7, with 61 U.S. patents. The assignee column on those pages reads "Theranos, Inc." on every row; Holmes appears as an inventor, not an assignee (Ex. 1940).
319. Nucleic acid amplification, US 9,416,387. Status: Confirmed. Exhibit row: "9416387 B2 Nucleic Acid Amplification, Theranos, Inc., Pranav Patel," filed 3/15/2014, issued 8/16/2016 (Exh. 10691). The European filing, EP 2 971 123 A2 "NUCLEIC ACID AMPLIFICATION": applicant "Theranos, Inc. Palo Alto"; filed 15.03.2014; inventors Belhocine, Lee, Patel, Richardson, Tabakman (Ex. 2971).
320. Influenza, US 8,007,999. Status: Confirmed. Exhibit row: "8007999 B2 Real-Time Detection of Influenza Virus, Theranos, Inc., Elizabeth A. Holmes; Ian Gibbons," filed 5/9/2007, issued 8/30/2011. A second patent of the same title, 8669047 B2, issued 3/11/2014 (Exh. 10691). Google Patents returned 503 for this number. Not established; no source linked on this line.
321. Multi-analysis systems. Status: Confirmed, title only. Exhibit rows: "8435738 B2 Systems and Methods for Multi-Analysis," Holmes, filed 9/26/2011, issued 5/7/2013; "9250229 B2," same title, issued 2/2/2016 (Exh. 10691). The claim text naming "nucleic acid assays, immunoassays, receptor-based assays" was not opened. Other rows on the same pages: "9529976 B2 Systems and Methods for Detecting Infectious Diseases" (issued 12/27/2016), "9500639 B2 Low-Volume Coagulation Assay," "9464981 B2 Systems and Methods for Sample Use Maximization." Not established; no source linked on this line.
322. US 10,533,994, granted January 2020. Status: Confirmed, title differs. Google Patents title: "Systems and methods of sample processing and fluid control in a fluidic system." Inventors Holmes, Roy, Gibbons; priority 2006-03-24; filed 2015-09-28; granted 2020-01-14; "Assigned to GOLDEN DIAGNOSTICS CORP." 2023-07-14; status "Expired - Lifetime" (Ex. 2972). The words "portable medical devices that allow real-time detection of analytes from a biological fluid" are the Labrador complaint's description of its two patents (Ex. 2973). The indictment came June 15, 2018 (Ex. 2974).

3323. Who holds the patents. Status: Confirmed. Google Patents events for 9,416,387: "2017-12-12 Assigned to FORTRESS CREDIT CORP."; "2017-12-12 Assigned to THERANOS IP COMPANY, LLC"; "2018-01-16 Assigned to THERANOS IP COMPANY, LLC"; "2020-04-03 Assigned to LABRADOR DIAGNOSTICS LLC." Current assignee "Labrador Diagnostics LLC"; status "Active," expiry 2034-03-15 (Ex. 2975). The same Dec 12, 2017 Fortress and Theranos IP Company entries appear for 10,533,994. These dates fall before the June 2018 indictment.
3324. The Fortress loan and the transfer. Status: Confirmed. "In December 2017, Fortress Investment Group, a wholly owned company of Softbank Group, loaned $100 million to Theranos for 4% of the company… The loan was secured by Theranos's pat[ents]." "Theranos would later transfer its patents to Fortress Investment Group on September 12 [2018] in exchange for Theranos's cash assets to be distributed to creditors" (Ex. 2963).
3325. Labrador v. BioFire, March 2020. Status: Confirmed; dismissal date Partial. "The patents, United States Patent 8,283,155, and 10,533,994 which are owned by Labrador… Labrador is a shell company owned by Fortress Investment Group and backed by SoftBank." The complaint names "FilmArray 2.0, FilmArray EZ, and/or FilmArray Torch" (Ex. 2973). Law Street Media: "Labrador Diagnostics LLC filed a lawsuit earlier this month in the District of Delaware against a manufacturer, bioMerieux and it's subsidiary BioFire, for patent infringement in a medical testing device used for COVID-19 testing using a patent formerly owned by Theranos. Mark Lemley… tweeted 'this could be the most tone-deaf IP suit in history.'" (Ex. 2973); Lemley's tweet is also quoted by Stanford Law (Ex. 2976). "Labrador is making its diagnostic technology royalty-free for use in COVID-19 testing" (Ex. 2199). Filing date Mar 9, 2020, No. 1:20-cv-00348 (D. Del.), and the later voluntary dismissal ("Fortress Drops Ex-Theranos IP Suit To Let Test Co. Fight Virus," (Ex. 2206)) are from search listings; the docket was not opened.
3326. Zika test at AACC 2016. Status: Confirmed. July 5, 2016: Holmes would share data on "chemistry, immunochemistry, hematology, and molecular assays… including a novel molecular test for the Zika virus," session Aug 1, 4:30–6:00 p.m. "Holmes' appearance does not reflect an endorsement of Theranos or its technology by AACC" (Ex. 2056).
3327. The FDA's response on Zika. Status: Confirmed, via WSJ. FDA inspectors "concluded that Theranos had collected some data supporting the accuracy of the Zika test without implementing a patient-safety protocol approved by an institutional review board, according to the people familiar with the matter"; Theranos withdrew its emergency-authorization request (Ex. 2977). The samples were "finger-stick samples from individuals in the Dominican Republic," and the test was for the miniLab, "not currently approved by the FDA" (Ex. 2978). No FDA document was opened.
3328. The device shown in You Can See Everything Status: Confirmed, wording differs. Tyler Shultz: "Back to the Theranos device itself. During that scene, my wife had to squeeze my arm to prevent me from jumping out of my seat in the theater and screaming, 'THAT IS NOT THE DEVICE… The device she showed Fielder on the kitchen table was not the reason she went to prison. Elizabeth showed him a future version of the Theranos product that was never completed and never used." "The actual device we used, called the 'Edison,' could only run one blood test at a time… was not a standalone platform (it was not accurate enough to perform the initial dilution step, so we first had to put the nanotainer into a large Tecan pipetting robot)." "An eight-channel pipette inside a black box" (Ex. 2658). "A pipette on a robotic arm in a box" is from his Oct 16, 2023 MSU talk, not from trial; he was not called to testify (see the next subsection).
3330. What the convictions rest on. Status: Confirmed. "Convicted Holmes of three counts of wire fraud and one count of conspiracy to commit wire fraud for lying to investors about devices developed by Theranos." "Not guilty on four other fraud-related charges connected to allegations that she duped patients." "Could not reach a unanimous verdict on three other counts tied to investor fraud" (Ex. 2980). "According to the indictment, investors, doctors and patients were defrauded" (Ex. 2963). Which investor stands behind each count, and the indictment's device language: Open.
3331. Finger-prick volume and variation. Status: Confirmed, for blood counts. Bond and Richards-Kortum, Am J Clin Pathol 2015;144(6):885, DOI 10.1309/AJCP1L7DKMPCHPEH: "results from a single drop of blood are highly variable, and as many as six to nine drops must be combined to achieve consistent results"; "in some donors, the hemoglobin concentration changed by more than two grams per deciliter in the span of two successive drops" (Ex. 2981). The study measured hemoglobin, platelets and white cells, not nucleic acid assays.
3332. Peer review of Theranos. Status: Confirmed. Ioannidis, "Stealth Research," JAMA, Feb 17, 2015, DOI 10.1001/jama.2014.17662: "As of January 5, 2015, a search in PubMed using Theranos as a search term identified affiliations for only two unrelated articles coauthored by Theranos Inc. employees" (quoted by (Ex. 2030)). A follow-up, "Stealth Research and Theranos," JAMA, July 26, 2016, DOI 10.1001/jama.2016.6986 (Crossref).
3333. Finger-prick tests later. Status: Confirmed. "Since May, needle-phobic people in Austin, Texas, have been able to visit pharmacies for routine medical tests on drops of blood… companies—including Becton Dickinson and Babson Diagnostics… have been working out technological kinks that foiled Theranos" (Ex. 2982).
3334. Not established: Capillary versus venous volume for nucleic acid tests. No FDA or peer-reviewed source on sample volume for molecular assays was opened this lap. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Tyler Shultz's record, in his words over time

3335. His trial testimony in US v. Holmes Status: Confirmed: he did not testify. "Shultz was on the government's witness list. He was never called to testify. He isn't sure why. 'I guess my emails just spoke for themselves,' he said." He joked that he would have brought the Edison: "Let's prick the judge's finger and see what happens" (Ex. 2272). His email reached the jury through Erika Cheung, who testified "about an email sent by her Theranos colleague, Tyler Shultz, to his grandfather," raising concerns about deleting "outliers" in Edison results (Ex. 2243). Testimony at the Balwani trial: not found in the sources opened.

336. Not established: April 2014 email to Holmes, and Balwani's reply. "On April 11, 2014, Shultz emailed Holmes to tell her that Theranos had doctored research and ignored quality-control checks. Holmes forwarded the email to Theranos COO Sunny Balwani." Balwani: "The only reason I have taken so much time away from work to address this personally is because you are Mr. Shultz's grandson" (Ex. 2006). Shultz's reply, per Audible's summary: "Consider this my two weeks' notice" (Ex. 2983). The full email was not found. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
337. Proficiency testing. Status: Confirmed, as his 2023 account. "Theranos split those samples and ran them on both Theranos equipment and third-party equipment. 'In some cases, the results were off by more than 300%'… management at Theranos ultimately decided to submit the results from the third-party equipment" (Ex. 2364).
338. New York State regulators. Status: Partial. He used "an alias to contact several regulators and publications" (Ex. 2068). NPR: "the first employee to report Holmes to government regulators" (Ex. 2984). The 2014 emails to New York, their date and the alias name: Open.
339. The WSJ, 2015–16. Status: Confirmed, from summaries. He was a confidential source for Carreyrou, who won a 2016 Polk Award. The Nov 2016 profile tells how George Shultz "sided with Theranos over his own flesh and blood," and how Tyler was invited home "on the pretext of signing a simple confidentiality agreement… In fact the elder Shultz had Theranos' lawyers waiting upstairs" (Ex. 2985). The WSJ article ("Theranos Whistleblower Shook the Company—and His Family," Nov 16, 2016, per Wikipedia's citation) was not opened. KRON adds that Holmes hired David Boies "to go after them with defamation lawsuits."
340. Thicker Than Water Status: Confirmed, wording differs. An Audible Original audiobook, not a 2019 podcast: "Thicker than Water, By: Tyler Shultz, Narrated by: Tyler Shultz," "(P)2020 Audible Originals," published 2020-08-04 (Ex. 2983). Econlib called it "Tyler Shultz's new Audible podcast" (Aug 29, 2020, (Ex. 2986)). No printed book was found.
341. What the Edison was, over time. Status: Confirmed; wording changes. 2022: "There is nothing that the Edison could do that I couldn't do with a pipette and my own hand" (NPR transcript). 2023: "It was just a pipette on a robotic arm in a box" (The State News). 2026: "an eight-channel pipette inside a black box… not accurate enough to perform the initial dilution step, so we first had to put the nanotainer into a large Tecan pipetting robot" (Ex. 2658). The "robotic arm" wording is from his 2023 talk, not from trial.
342. What regulators saw, over time. Status: Confirmed; wording changes. 2022, NPR's words: "when Theranos complied with safety audits, it was running tests not on the Edison, but on big commercial lab equipment." 2023, his: "Regulators were only shown third party equipment that you would see in a Quest or a Labcorp," and "the doors to the laboratory were intentionally locked." 2026: the Edison was "the device we hid from regulators." Not established; no source linked on this line.
343. His grandfather, over time. Status: Confirmed; accounts differ in emphasis. 2022: "He didn't believe me… 'I think you're wrong' is what he told me." The relationship "was never the same and he never apologized. 'But he did say I did the right thing'" (NPR). 2026: asked why George stayed on the board, "part of his response was that they had fired Sunny and they believed he was responsible for what had gone wrong" (STAT). Not established; no source linked on this line.
344. Holmes's intent, in 2026. Status: Confirmed. "I do not believe that Elizabeth started Theranos with the intent to defraud investors… and I also do not believe that she started Theranos wanting to help patients… I believe she started Theranos wanting to be famous." "I've always believed that she set Sunny up to be the fall guy" (STAT). Not established; no source linked on this line.
345. The verdict, as he describes it. Status: Confirmed, his count differs. STAT 2026: blaming Sunny "actually worked … but only 66% of the way. Sunny was convicted of 12 of 12 counts against him, and Elizabeth was only convicted of four." NPR's count for Holmes: 4 guilty, 4 not guilty, 3 hung (Jan 3, 2022). Not established; no source linked on this line.
346. Where the film was shot. Status: Wording differs. STAT 2026: "the small condo she and her husband, Billy, were renting in San Diego." Wikipedia on the film: a rented house in Del Mar (see the row above). Not established; no source linked on this line.
347. Not established: 60 Minutes, May 2018. Wikipedia cites a Paramount release, "On '60 Minutes,' in his first TV interview…" dated 2018-05-18. Not opened. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

2000, the flip year

348. Gramm–Leach–Bliley Act, 1999. Status: Confirmed, wording differs. Co-sponsors: "Sen. Phil Gramm (R–Texas), Rep. Jim Leach (R–Iowa), and Rep. Thomas J. Bliley Jr. (R–Virginia)." Introduced as S. 900 by Gramm on April 28, 1999. Votes: Senate May 6, 1999 (54–44); House July 1, 1999 (343–86); conference report Nov 2; Senate Nov 4 (90–8); House Nov 4 (362–57). "Signed into law by President Bill Clinton on November 12, 1999." It "repealed part of the Glass–Steagall Act of 1933." "A year before the law was passed, Citicorp… merged with… Travelers Group in 1998 to form the conglomerate Citigroup" (Ex. 2987). The law repealed part of Glass–Steagall, not all of it.
349. US internet adoption around 2000. Status: Confirmed. Pew: "When the Center began asking Americans about their internet usage in early 2000, about half of all adults were already online." Share of US adults online: 2000, 52%; 2001, 55%; 2002, 59% (Ex. 1672). The ITU series (via the World Bank) gives the US at 43.1% of the population in 2000, 49.1% in 2001 and 58.8% in 2002 (Ex. 2988).
350. Not established: World internet adoption. The ITU world series begins at 15.6% in 2005 and first passes half in 2019 (53.9%); 2020 is 60.1% ((Ex. 2988); (Ex. 2136)). No ITU world figure for 2000 was returned. Internet World Stats gives 360,985,492 users on Dec 31, 2000 (a search listing; not opened). Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
351. USA PATRIOT Act, 2001. Status: Confirmed. "Introduced in the House as H.R. 3162 by Jim Sensenbrenner (R–WI) on October 23, 2001." Passed the House Oct 24 (357–66); the three Republican no votes were "Robert Ney of Ohio, Butch Otter of Idaho, and Ron Paul of Texas." Passed the Senate Oct 25 (98–1): "Russ Feingold (D-WI) voted 'no'." "Signed into law by President George W. Bush on October 26, 2001" (Ex. 2989). Drafting: Viet Dinh, head of DOJ's Office of Legal Policy "since May 31, 2001… played a key role in drafting and implementing the USA PATRIOT Act" (Ex. 1699). John Ashcroft was Attorney General (same Wikipedia page). Michael Chertoff as co-author appears only in a search summary of a student paper: Open. See Part III-C.

352. Not established: Palantir, 2003–2006. Founded May 6, 2003 (row above). "In 2004, Thiel bankrolled the creation of a prototype by PayPal engineer Nathan Gettings and Stanford University students Joe Lonsdale and Stephen Cohen. The same year, he hired Alex Karp." "When Palantir launched in 2004… Thiel and his venture fund largely bankrolled the initial $30 million cost. CIA-affiliated venture capital firm In-Q-Tel invested about $2 million." "Oakhouse Partners led Palantir's $7.5 million Series A (June 2006)." For two years the company revised its technology "based on the demands of analysts from the intelligence agencies, introduced to them by In-Q-Tel" (Ex. 2946). The date of In-Q-Tel's first investment is not given there. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
353. Facebook and Thiel, 2004. Status: Confirmed, amount differs by $1. "On February 4, 2004, Zuckerberg launched it under the name of 'TheFacebook'." Zuckerberg and Eduardo Saverin "each… agreed to invest $1,000." Reid Hoffman "redirected [Sean] Parker to Peter Thiel." "In the summer of 2004, venture capitalist Peter Thiel made a $500,001 angel investment… for 10.2% of the company and joined Facebook's board" (Ex. 2990). The Thiel page says "In August 2004… for $500,000" (Ex. 2847).

Names

354. Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Status: Confirmed. Publisher Longmans, Green & Co.; "Publication date 5 January 1886." "Charles Scribner's Sons issued an 'authorized edition' in New York on 5 January 1886, four days before the appearance of the first UK edition issued in London by Longmans" (Ex. 2991). The two dates differ by source within the same page.
355. Where Stevenson took the name Jekyll. Status: Confirmed, sources hedge. Walter Jekyll, Gertrude Jekyll's brother, "was a friend of Robert Louis Stevenson, who borrowed the family name for his 1886 novella" (Ex. 2992). The Chiltern Open Air Museum says he "inspired a legendary literary name" (Ex. 2993). Other sites in the search listing say the name "may have" been borrowed.
356. How Jekyll Island got its name. Status: Confirmed. "General James Oglethorpe established Georgia as a colony in 1733. He renamed the island in honor of his friend Joseph Jekyll, who had contributed £600 towards the founding of the colony" (Ex. 2994). Sir Joseph Jekyll (1663–19 August 1738) was a Whig politician and Master of the Rolls (Ex. 2995). The island name predates the novel by about 150 years.
357. The Jekyll Island Club, 1886. Status: Confirmed. "On February 17, 1886, Finney signed an official agreement with du Bignon, who sold Jekyll Island to Finney's Jekyll Island Club for $125,000. On April 1, 1886, a meeting was held in New York to create the constitution and by-laws." The 53 members included "Henry Hyde, Marshall Field, John Pierpont Morgan, Joseph Pulitzer, and William K. Vanderbilt." The club "officially opened its doors… for the 1888 season on January 21" (Ex. 351). The novel came out Jan 5, 1886; the island sale was signed Feb 17, 1886.
358. Operation Paperclip. Status: Confirmed. Operation Overcast was established on July 20, 1945. "In November 1945, Operation Overcast was renamed Operation Paperclip by Ordnance Corps officers, who would attach a paperclip to the folders of those rocket experts whom they wished to employ in the United States." More than 1,600 German scientists, engineers and technicians came "between 1945 and 1959" (Ex. 2996).
359. Operation Mockingbird. Status: Partial: the name's origin is not stated. The CIA's 1973 "Family Jewels" refer to "Project Mockingbird," which "wiretapped two syndicated columnists, Robert Allen and Paul Scott, 'from March 12 to June 15, 1963'." The name "Operation Mockingbird" for a press network comes from Deborah Davis's 1979 biography of Katharine Graham; historian David P. Hadley wrote that Davis "provided no information on her sources." The Church Committee (1976) reported about fifty journalists with "official, but secret, relationships with the CIA" (Ex. 683). Why the name was chosen is not given.
360. Not established: Palantir and Gotham. Palantir: named for the seeing stone (row in "Comedy and the edge"). No source opened states why the product is called Gotham. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
361. Not established: Jesús as a given name. No national count of people named Jesús, by country or community, was found. The search turned up a Puebla birth-register study, "Jesús, María and José: the Holy Family in San Pablito (1874–1970)," in which José is far more common than Jesús (search listing, not opened). Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
362. Anti-Drug Abuse Act of 1986. Status: Confirmed. "Signed into law by President Ronald Reagan on October 27, 1986." The deaths of Len Bias and Don Rogers "on June 19 and June 27, 1986… prompted then-Speaker… Tip O'Neill to mobilize the House Democratic leadership to draft" it. It "mandated a minimum sentence of 5 years without parole for possession of 5 grams of crack cocaine, while it mandated the same for possession of 500 grams of powder cocaine" (Ex. 2997).
363. The 1994 crime bill and three strikes. Status: Confirmed. Sponsored by Rep. Jack Brooks; Sen. Joe Biden, chairman of Senate Judiciary, played "a major role in drafting the law." House 235–195 and Senate 61–38 in August 1994; "Signed into law by President Bill Clinton on September 13, 1994." It "added the three-strikes rule, which meant a life sentence for criminals who were convicted of three violent or drug crimes" (Ex. 2998).
364. IIRIRA, 1996. Status: Confirmed. Carried in H.R. 3610, introduced by C. W. Bill Young on June 11, 1996; House 370–37 on Sept 28; Senate voice vote Sept 30; "Signed into law by President Bill Clinton on September 30, 1996" (Ex. 2999).
365. Hispanic share of federal sentences. Status: Confirmed, from USSC data via Pew. "In 2007, Hispanics accounted for 40% of all sentenced federal offenders, which is triple their share of the U.S. adult population." "The number of Hispanics sentenced in federal court between 1991 and 2001 nearly quadrupled, jumping from 7,924 to 29,281." "In 1991, 60% of Hispanics were sentenced for drug crimes and 20% for immigration crimes. By 2007, 48%" were sentenced for immigration offenses (Ex. 3000). The Pew report itself returned 403.
366. Hispanic share of federal drug prisoners, 2012. Status: Confirmed. Of 94,678 federal drug offenders at fiscal yearend 2012: "non-Hispanic black or African American (39%) or Hispanic or Latino (37%); nearly a quarter (22%) were non-Hispanic white." Hispanic or Latino offenders were "54% of powder cocaine," "59% of marijuana" and "48% of heroin" offenders (Ex. 3001).
367. Not established: BJS state and federal Hispanic prisoner shares, 1980–2010. Not in the pages opened. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Naming the doors

368. War Department to Defense. Status: Confirmed. Washington signed the bill creating the Department of War on August 7, 1789 (EO 14347, below). "On 26 July 1947, Truman signed the National Security Act of 1947," which created the National Military Establishment. The NME "formally began operations on 18 September," the day after James Forrestal was confirmed. "The War Department also changed its name to the Department of the Army." "On 10 August 1949… the amendment renamed the NME the Department of Defense. The renaming is alleged to be due to the NME's pronunciation as 'enemy'" (Ex. 3002).
369. "Department of War" again, 2025. Status: Confirmed. Executive Order 14347, September 5, 2025: "The name 'Department of War,' more than the current 'Department of Defense,' ensures peace through strength, as it demonstrates our ability and willingness to fight and win wars on behalf of our Nation at a moment's notice, not just to defend." Sec. 2(a): an "additional secondary title" for "official correspondence, public communications, ceremonial contexts, and non-statutory documents." Sec. 2(e): "Statutory references to the Department of Defense… shall remain controlling until changed subsequently by the law." Sec. 2(g): a recommendation within 60 days "to permanently change the name" (Ex. 2499). The department's news site is now war.gov (it returned 403).
370. Not established: The statutory rename. June 2026: both Armed Services committees voted the rename out as part of the FY2027 NDAA. "On 22 July, the House voted to adopt the name change." CBO: "between $10 million and $125 million" (Ex. 3002). The House vote "was 216-212" (Ex. 3003); "the first time either chamber has approved legislation that would make the name change part of federal law" (Ex. 3004). No Senate floor vote was found as of Oct 20, 2026. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
371. The Iran war, 2026. Status: Confirmed to July; October Partial. "Almost since the U.S. and Israel launched missile strikes on Iran on Feb. 28" (Ex. 3005). June 23, 2026: both chambers passed a concurrent War Powers resolution (House 215–208 on June 3; Senate 50–48); it "does not require a presidential signature and lacks legally binding enforcement power" (Ex. 3006). July 23: the House passed another, 214–208, over "a war that lawmakers never voted to authorize"; "Eighteen U.S. troops have died since fighting broke out in February" (Ex. 3007). July 23–24: "a 13th consecutive night of strikes on Iran" (Ex. 3008). Oct 8, 2026: "The Pentagon has put US Central Command on notice to be prepared for a possible resumption of operations against Iran as the White House considers a new round of strikes that could take place before the midterm elections" (Ex. 3009). A resumption on Aug 30 and a US blockade of Iranian ports appear only on a tracker site (not opened). See Part III-A.
372. Not established: USA PATRIOT. "The formal name of the statute is the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism (USA PATRIOT) Act of 2001, and the commonly used short name is a backronym that is embedded in the name set forth in the statute" (Ex. 2989). Who coined it: one unreliable homework page names House Judiciary staffer Chris Cylke; not confirmed. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file. See Part III-C.
373. Citizens United. Status: Confirmed. "An American conservative nonprofit organization founded in 1988," November 1988, a 501(c)(4); president and chairman David Bossie (Ex. 3010). Citizens United v. FEC, 558 U.S. 310, "Decided January 21, 2010," arose from its film Hillary: The Movie (Ex. 3011). See Part III-B.
374. No Child Left Behind. Status: Law Confirmed; phrase origin Partial. House 381–41 on Dec 13, 2001; Senate 87–10 on Dec 18; "Signed into law by President George W. Bush on January 8, 2002"; replaced Dec 10, 2015 by the Every Student Succeeds Act (Ex. 3012). The phrase: search listings say "Leave No Child Behind" was the Children's Defense Fund's registered motto and that CDF asked the Bush campaign to "cease and desist"; one encyclopedia entry says there is no connection. The Yale page did not return the text.
375. Federal Reserve, in its own words. Status: Confirmed. "The Federal Reserve System is not 'owned' by anyone." "The Board of Governors in Washington, D.C., is an agency of the federal government and reports to and is directly accountable to the Congress." The system has "a blend of public and private characteristics." "Commercial banks that are members of the Federal Reserve System hold stock in their District's Reserve Bank… The Reserve Banks are not operated for profit, and ownership of a certain amount of stock is, by law, a condition of membership." They "are required by law to transfer net earnings to the U.S. Treasury" (Ex. 3013). "An independent government agency"; it "does not receive funding through the congressional budgetary process" (Ex. 3014). Each of the 12 Reserve Banks "is separately incorporated."

The words each war was authorized with

376. Korea, 1950. Status: Confirmed. UNSC Resolution 82, 25 June 1950: condemned the "armed attack on the Republic of Korea by forces from North Korea" (Ex. 690). Resolution 83, 27 June 1950: "Members of the United Nations furnish such assistance to the Republic of Korea as may be necessary to repel the armed attack and to restore international peace and security in the area" (Ex. 691). A US congressional authorization for Korea was not found. See Part III-A.
377. Vietnam, 1964. Status: Confirmed. Gulf of Tonkin Resolution, H.J. Res. 1145, Public Law 88-408: Congress "approves and supports the determination of the President, as Commander in Chief, to take all necessary measures to repel any armed attack against the forces of the United States and to prevent further aggression." Sec. 2: "The United States regards as vital to its national interest and to world peace the maintenance of international peace and security in southeast Asia" (Ex. 938). Passed Aug 7, 1964 (House 416–0, Senate 88–2); signed by Johnson Aug 10, 1964 (Ex. 3015).
378. Afghanistan, 2001. Status: Confirmed. Public Law 107-40: "the President is authorized to use all necessary and appropriate force against those nations, organizations, or persons he determines planned, authorized, committed, or aided the terrorist attacks that occurred on September 11, 2001… in order to prevent any future acts of international terrorism against the United States." "Approved September 18, 2001" (Ex. 3016). Senate 98–0 and House 420–1 on Sept 14; Barbara Lee was the one no (Ex. 1711).
379. Iraq, 2002. Status: Confirmed. Public Law 107-243: "The President is authorized to use the Armed Forces of the United States as he determines to be necessary and appropriate in order to—(1) defend the national security of the United States against the continuing threat posed by Iraq; and (2) enforce all relevant United Nations Security Council resolutions regarding Iraq." "Approved October 16, 2002" (Ex. 1756). House 296–133 on Oct 10; Senate 77–23 on Oct 11; "Repealed by the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2026" (Ex. 3017).

380. Iran, 2026. Status: Confirmed. No authorization: NPR calls it "a war that lawmakers never voted to authorize" (row above). Not established; no source linked on this line.
381. The Fed and the First World War. Status: Confirmed, wording differs. The Federal Reserve Act was signed Dec 23, 1913 (row in "Morgan and the First World War"); the war ran "28 July 1914 – 11 November 1918" (Ex. 3018). The gap is about seven months, not one year.

The Cold War and the Russian reset

382. The USSR's end. Status: Confirmed. "On 25 December 1991, Gorbachev resigned and transferred his presidential powers—including control of the nuclear launch codes—to Russian president Boris Yeltsin. That evening, the Soviet flag was lowered from the Moscow Kremlin for the last time." "On 26 December 1991, the Soviet Union was formally dissolved" (Ex. 3019).
383. Not established: Sachs and shock therapy. "Sach's advice was sought by Soviet president Mikhail Gorbachev and his successor, Russian president Boris Yeltsin, on the transition… Sachs's methods for stabilizing economies became known as shock therapy" (Ex. 3020). Shock therapy "can be distilled to price liberalization accompanied by strict austerity" (Ex. 3021). Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
384. Price liberalization, January 1992. Status: Confirmed, date differs. "In October [1991], Yeltsin delivered a speech in which he declared that price controls would be lifted on January 1, 1992, over Gaidar's recommendation that no specific date for the freeing of prices be given" (Ex. 3022). The page says January 1; the January 2 date in the lead was not found in the pages opened.
385. Voucher privatization, 1992–1994. Status: Confirmed. "Between 12,000 and 14,000 medium and large enterprises had been transferred into private hands. Around 40 million Russians became shareholders, and the voucher privatization program gave 144 million people the opportunity to become owners of enterprises." It was "carried out by the State Committee for State Property Management… under Chubais" (same page). Not established; no source linked on this line.
386. The Harvard advisers and USAID. Status: Confirmed. USAID "funded a project by the HIID." "Jeffrey Sachs was said to have 'packaged HIID as an AID consultant'." HIID "oversaw and guided disbursement of $300 million of US aid to Russia with little oversight by USAID." "HIID advisers worked closely with… Anatoly Chubais and his associates." The project "ran from 1992 to 1997" and "was headed by economist Andrei Shleifer and lawyer Jonathan Hay." "HIID received $40.4 million… awarded without the normal competitive bidding approach." Larry Summers "had set up the project as deputy secretary of the treasury" (Ex. 3023). Shleifer was "a direct advisor to Anatoly Chubais, then vice-premier of Russia" (Ex. 3024).
387. The investigation and settlement. Status: Confirmed. 1996: Congress asked the GAO to investigate; it found USAID oversight "lax." 1997: "USAID ended a $14 million grant… after Andrei Shleifer was accused of using the institute to help his wife Nancy Zimmerman's investments in Russia"; Zimmerman paid "$1.5 million." "In September 2000, Shleifer and Hay were accused by the Justice Department of making personal investments in Russia." "In 2005, the university was required to pay the US government a settlement of $26.5 million" (HIID page). "In August 2005, Harvard University, Shleifer and the Department of Justice reached an agreement under which the university paid $26.5 million… Shleifer paid $2 million" (Shleifer page). Wikipedia cites a PR Newswire release of Aug 3: "Harvard Defendants Pay Over $31 Million." The DOJ release was not found (404). Not established; no source linked on this line.
388. Loans-for-shares, 1995. Status: Confirmed. Proposed "by banker Vladimir Potanin and endorsed by Chubais, then a deputy prime minister"; Oleg Soskovets got "Yeltsin's signature on it." Auctions, per the table: Nov 17, 1995, Norilsk Nickel, 51%, $170.1M, ONEXIM Bank; Dec 7, Lukoil, 5%, $141M; Dec 8, YUKOS, 45%, $159M, ZAO Laguna "(effectively MENATEP Bank)"; Dec 28, Sibneft, 51%, $100.3M. A quoted passage on the page: "Khodorkovsky got a 78 percent share of ownership in Yukos, worth about $5 billion, for a mere $310 million… Boris Berezovsky got Sibneft… worth $3 billion, for about $100 million" (Ex. 3025). The two Yukos figures differ ($159M for 45% in the table; $310M for 78% in the quote).
389. Putin's KGB and FSB record. Status: Confirmed. "In 1975, Putin joined the KGB." He "worked as a KGB foreign intelligence officer for 16 years, rising to the rank of lieutenant colonel. He resigned in 1991." Director of the FSB "25 July 1998 – 29 March 1999"; prime minister from 9 August 1999; president from "31 December 1999" ("Acting: 31 December 1999 – 7 May 2000") (Ex. 3026).
390. The 2000 election. Status: Confirmed. Election "26 March 2000"; Putin 53.44%, Zyuganov 29.49%; he "won in the first round" (Ex. 3027). Inauguration was 7 May 2000.
391. Not established: Dated meetings between US advisers and Russian officials. The pages opened describe working relationships (HIID with Chubais, 1992–97) but give no dated meeting with place. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

What the contracts are, as the regulators describe them

392. There is a written Google–Anthropic contract set. Status: Confirmed. The UK CMA's full decision lists the parts: "(a) A series of acquisitions by Google of non-voting Anthropic shares… (b) Extension of convertible debt financing… (c) A non-exclusive arrangement for the supply of compute capacity… (d) A non-exclusive agreement to distribute Anthropic models on Google's Vertex AI." Part (d) and its footnote: "(d) A non-exclusive agreement to distribute Anthropic models on Google’s Vertex AI. 22… 22 This is detailed in a Strategic Alliance Agreement signed in March 2024." (Ex. 3028)
393. Google holds special rights through a Side Letter. Status: Confirmed (terms redacted). "Google has secured certain rights in relation to Anthropic through the Side Letter. The earliest iteration of the Side Letter was signed in October 2022, with the most recent version signed in August 2024." The rights: "(a) a right to consult with and advise Anthropic management on significant business issues, including []; (b) []; and (c) []." Two of the three rights are blacked out. (Ex. 3028)
394. The two companies talk a lot. Status: Confirmed. CMA: internal documents "highlighted significant levels of contact between the Parties, this was predominantly of a technical nature and related to implementation of the compute and distribution agreements." The sentence after it is redacted. (Ex. 3028)
395. Google has no control over Anthropic. Status: Confirmed as the parties' and regulator's position. CMA (Nov 19, 2024): the partnership "does not qualify for investigation" (Ex. 3029). Sworn declaration of Anthropic co-founder Tom Brown, Feb 14, 2025:

"Google has no voting rights, board seats, or even board observer rights. Nor does Google have any exclusive rights to any Anthropic product." (Ex. 3030)

3396. Google owns about 14% of Anthropic, capped at 15%. Status: Partial. Court documents reported by the NYT put it at 14% with a 15% ceiling ((Ex. 3031); (Ex. 3032) (Ex. 3030). Next lap: the NYT article itself.

Money and compute, in order

3397. Feb 3, 2023: Anthropic picks Google Cloud. Status: Confirmed. "Anthropic has selected Google Cloud as its preferred cloud provider… Google Cloud intends to build large-scale, next-generation TPU and GPU clusters that Anthropic plans to use to train and deploy" its AI (Ex. 3033)
3398. Late 2022 / early 2023: about $300M for about 10%. Status: Partial. Reported by CNBC and DCD, which disagree on the date (Ex. 3034). Brown's declaration says Google's investing "began in 2022."
3399. Oct 2023: up to $2B ($500M upfront, $1.5B over time) Status: Confirmed by reporting. Anthropic spokesperson to CNBC (Ex. 3034)
3400. Oct 23, 2025: up to one million TPUs. Status: Confirmed. "Up to one million TPUs… worth tens of billions of dollars and is expected to bring well over a gigawatt of capacity online in 2026." Same post: Amazon remains "our primary training partner and cloud provider" (Ex. 3035)
3401. Apr 6, 2026: three-party Google, Broadcom and Anthropic pact for custom TPUs from 2027. Status: Confirmed (SEC filing). Broadcom 8-K, Item 8.01: "Broadcom Inc. ('Broadcom') and Google LLC ('Google') have entered into a Long Term Agreement for Broadcom to develop and supply custom Tensor Processing Units ('TPUs') for Google's future generations of TPUs and a Supply Assurance Agreement… through up to 2031. Separately, Broadcom, Google and Anthropic PBC ('Anthropic') have expanded their current strategic collaboration under which Anthropic, beginning in 2027, will access through Broadcom approximately 3.5 gigawatts as part of the multiple gigawatts of next generation TPU-based AI compute capacity committed by Anthropic. The consumption of such expanded AI compute capacity by Anthropic is dependent on Anthropic's continued commercial success." (Ex. 3036). Anthropic's post: "multiple gigawatts of next-generation TPU capacity that we expect to come online starting in 2027" (Ex. 2566)
3402. Not established: Apr 24, 2026: Google Cloud supplies 5 GW over 5 years. "The new Google investment expands that arrangement, with Google Cloud now providing a fresh 5 gigawatts of capacity over the next five years, with room to scale further" (Ex. 3037). The Information, as reported: "Anthropic has committed to spending roughly $200 billion with Google Cloud over the next five years… part of the agreement under which Google is providing the AI company with five gigawatts of server capacity," which is "more than 40 percent of Google's total 'revenue backlog'" (Ex. 3038) Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3403. 2026: Google commits up to $40B. Status: Confirmed (SEC filing). Alphabet 10-Q, Q1 2026: "In March 2026, we committed to a $40.0 billion investment in a private company consisting of a $10.0 billion capital commitment and $30.0 billion of future capital funding contingent upon the achievement of specified operational and financial milestones" (Ex. 3039). The 10-Q doesn't name the company; TechCrunch ties it to Anthropic: "$10 billion now, at a $350 billion valuation… another $30 billion to follow" (Ex. 3037)

The antitrust record

3405. Judge Mehta's final ruling on AI investments. Status: Confirmed. Sept 2, 2025: the court refused even a notice rule for future AI deals: "The remedy is not tailored to fit Google's unlawful conduct, as the court's liability determination involved no anticompetitive acquisition or joint venture by Google." The opinion lists Claude and Gemini as separate chatbots and notes "Google has invested in Anthropic" ((Ex. 3042), pp. 213–15)
3406. Not established: FTC studied the deal. Jan 2025 staff report on three cloud–AI pairs including Alphabet–Anthropic; it flags "consultation, control, and exclusivity rights" and partners' access to "sensitive technical and business information" ((Ex. 2451), 404 from here; (Ex. 3043)) Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Claude inside Google's Gemini work

3407. Google used Claude to evaluate Gemini. Status: Confirmed. "Contractors working to improve Google's Gemini AI are comparing its answers against outputs produced by Anthropic's competitor model Claude." One output read: "I am Claude, created by Anthropic." Google DeepMind's spokesperson: "in some cases we compare model outputs as part of our evaluation process… However, any suggestion that we have used Anthropic models to train Gemini is inaccurate." Google would not say whether it had Anthropic's permission (Ex. 3044)
3408. Not established: That use needed Anthropic's approval. Anthropic's commercial terms, D.4: customers may not "access the Services to build a competing product or service, including to train competing AI models… except as expressly approved by Anthropic" (Ex. 3045). Whether the Side Letter or Strategic Alliance Agreement gives Google that approval is in the redacted parts. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.
3409. Gemini teams at DeepMind used Claude Code. Status: Confirmed by reporting. Bloomberg (Apr 2026), as summarized: "many employees within the DeepMind team have been given access to the Claude coding tool, despite its prohibition on relying on external tools" (Ex. 3046)
3410. Opus is now used across Google. Status: Confirmed by reporting. Sept 15, 2026: "Staff can now use Anthropic's Opus 5 model for internal work inside Antigravity, Google's internal development platform." Google: "Gemini remains our primary and foundational model for internal development, with third-party models available on a quota" ((Ex. 3047); (Ex. 3048), bot wall)

3411. Not established: "Opus made Gemini": one base under both Same chips: "We trained Gemini 1.0 at scale on our AI-optimized infrastructure using Google's in-house designed Tensor Processing Units (TPUs) v4 and v5e" (Ex. 3049). "Google also announced that Anthropic was using Google's own TPU v5e accelerator chip technology to efficiently scale serving for its Claude LLM" (Ex. 3028). Same supplier and builder: Google Cloud (Feb 2023 onward), the million-TPU deal (Oct 2025), and Broadcom's custom-TPU contracts with both Google and Anthropic (8-K, Apr 2026). Same money: Google's equity, its convertible notes and the $40B commitment largely come back to Google Cloud as compute spend. Brown Decl. ¶15: "Anthropic spends most of the money raised from Google's investments to purchase compute." Same work: Claude rated Gemini (2024), Claude Code used inside Gemini teams (2026), Opus 5 across Google (Sept 2026). On the other side: Google says it has not used Anthropic models "to train Gemini." Open: the redacted Side Letter and alliance terms, and whether Claude or Opus outputs or code went into Gemini's training. Searched: the sources in the cited exhibits and the source file.

Chase 2: do Opus and Gemini share weights underneath?

3412. Sworn trial testimony on who pre-trains what. Status: On record: separate pre-training. Judge Mehta's findings (Sept 2, 2025), from sworn testimony. On Gemini: "Google uses its Google Common Corpus ('GCC') to pre-train its Gemini GenAI models," starting "from a[n] essentially untrained version of the transformer model" (Durrett, Collins). On Claude: "Anthropic is an American AI technology company that builds and pre-trains its own GenAI foundational model" (Shevelenko, Collins) (Ex. 3042)
3413. Contracts. Status: Sealed. The agreements cover shares, notes, compute supply and Vertex AI distribution (Ex. 3050). No public text mentions model weights. Two Side Letter rights are redacted. Brown's sworn declaration: Google has no "exclusive rights to any Anthropic product."
3414. Training on outputs (distillation) Status: Partial. Claude's outputs were in Gemini's rating pipeline in 2024 (Ex. 3051). Google denies training Gemini on them. Anthropic's distillation reports (latest Oct 12, 2026) name Chinese labs (DeepSeek, Moonshot, MiniMax, Zhipu and others), not Google (Ex. 3052).
3415. Gemini calling itself Claude. Status: Partial (anecdote). A user reported "Gemini 2.5 Pro calls itself Claude 3.5" (Ex. 3053). No response from Google or Anthropic is on record.
3416. Tokenizer (the first layer of the weights) Status: Partial. Gemini's vocabulary is public through Gemma: "We use a subset of the SentencePiece tokenizer… of Gemini… The vocabulary size is 256k tokens" (Ex. 3054). Claude's tokenizer for Claude 3 and later isn't published. Next lap: compare token counts for the same text through both APIs. That test checks the tokenizers only and can't settle the weights question.
3417. Same chips. Status: Confirmed. Both run on Google TPU v5e (see Chase 1 and the "one base" row). Not established; no source linked on this line.
3418. Weight fingerprinting. Status: Sealed. Tools that match weight lineage exist (TensorGuard, AWM, GhostSpec: (Ex. 3055), (Ex. 3056)), but they need the weights. Neither Claude's nor Gemini's weights are public, so no one outside the two companies has run them.

Working layer (Noah, 2026-10-22)

3419. Dec 2024 ("last week" before Dec 18, 2024) Gemini raters, GlobalLogic: "contractors working with GlobalLogic, an outsourcing firm owned by Hitachi, are routinely asked to evaluate AI-generated responses according to factors like “truthfulness.”" "GlobalLogic announced a change from Google that contractors are no longer allowed to skip such prompts". Guidelines before: "If you do not have critical expertise (e.g. coding, math) to rate this prompt, please skip this task." After: "You should not skip prompts that require specialized domain knowledge." (Ex. 2441)
3420. Spring 2024 to Sept 2025. "thousands of AI workers contracted for Google through Japanese conglomerate Hitachi’s GlobalLogic to rate and moderate the output of Google’s AI products, including its flagship chatbot Gemini". "Google contracts with other firms for AI rating services as well, including Accenture and, previously, Appen." A worker "who joined GlobalLogic in spring 2024" described "choosing the response that aligned best with the guidelines, and rating it based on any violations of those guidelines." Google: "Quality raters are employed by our suppliers and are temporarily assigned to provide external feedback on our products." (Ex. 2418)
3421. Spring 2023 to Aug 2025. GlobalLogic super raters, named: "For a decade, software company GlobalLogic had a team of “generalist raters” who would help rate Google’s search results. In the spring of 2023, Google asked GlobalLogic to assemble a team of “super raters” to evaluate its AI products, starting with AI Overviews." "Ricardo Levario, a teacher from Texas, was hired among the first batch of super raters." The company "eventually ended up hiring as many as 2,000 super raters". GlobalLogic super raters "$28 to $32 an hour"; those "brought in via third-party contractors were paid $18 to $22 an hour for the same work." Spring 2024: workers "got together with the Alphabet Workers Union"; "By December 2024, their chapter had 18 members." Levario "filed a whistleblower complaint with Hitachi. Four days later" he was fired "for violating the social spaces policy." Andrew Lauzon, who joined "in March 2024", got "an email with the news of his termination on August 15." "More than 200 contractors ... laid off ... in at least two rounds of layoffs last month." Google spokesperson Courtenay Mencini: "These individuals are employees of GlobalLogic or their subcontractors, not Alphabet". "GlobalLogic declined to comment." (Ex. 2353)
3422. Mar 31, 2021 (agreement); July 14, 2021 (completed) "Hitachi, Ltd. (TSE: 6501, "Hitachi") today announced that it has completed the acquisition of GlobalLogic Inc. ("GlobalLogic") pursuant to the terms of the definitive agreement signed on March 31, 2021." "Hitachi Global Digital Holdings LLC ("HGDH"), a U.S. subsidiary of Hitachi, has acquired 100% of the outstanding shares of GlobalLogic Worldwide Holdings, Inc." (Ex. 2234)
3423. Feb 18, Mar 7, May 30, 2025. NLRB charges, Region 32, Oakland; location Santa Clara, CA; status "Open": 32-CA-360463, "GlobalLogic and Hitachi, Joint Employers", filed February 18, 2025; 32-CA-361610, "GlobalLogic and Digitive as Joint Employer/GlobalLogic and Hitachi as Joint Employer", filed March 7, 2025; 32-CA-366940, "GlobalLogic and Hitachi, Joint Employers", filed May 30, 2025. 3424. 1. Alfonso XIII and Queen Ena race along the paupers' line at the Maundy Thursday foot-washing, Madrid; Alfonso slows so Ena wins. Status: partial (the story appears only as a reader comment; a Pilar of Bavaria / Chapman-Huston passage gives the timing difference, without a race or a win). Comment by "Damian": "There is a story that Alfonso XIII used to make the maundy service into a competition with his English wife, Ena of Battenberg. The competition was to see who could be finished washing feet first. Alfonso could simply dirty his trousers and crawl on his knees to the next pauper's feet. Ena, on the other hand, encumbered by her dress could not. However, out of gallantry, he would take longer and so allow her to win. It's a cute story."

Passage reproduced on the Plinio Corrêa de Oliveira page, taken from "Alfonso XIII" by Princesa Pilar de Baviera and Desmond Chapman-Huston (Juventud, Barcelona, 1959, pp. 243-249): "Mientras el Rey lava los pies de los ancianos, la Reina lava de modo análogo los de las ancianas. Tarda más, porque después de cada lavatorio tiene que levantarse y volver a ponerse de rodillas, puesto que su largo vestido hace imposible el procedimiento más expeditivo del Rey. Éste, al terminar, se queda esperándola en el centro del salón, ante el altar" Comment: https://shannonselin.com/2018/03/foot-washing-habsburg-empress/ (comment dated April 20, 2019, 10:44 am). Passage: https://www.pliniocorreadeoliveira.info/ES_DIS_SD_921125_El_Lavapies_en_la_corte_Alfonso_XIII.htm Event date: undated (reign 1906-1931). Comment: Apr 20, 2019. Book: 1959 Differences from the claim: the comment gives no author, date or source; it says "who could be finished washing feet first", not a race along a line. The 1959 book has Alfonso washing the men and Ena the women, Ena slower, Alfonso waiting for her "al terminar"; it contains no race and no "allow her to win". Time (1926, 1928) and El Debate (1931) also have the king washing the men and the queen the women. Status: partial (year of start 1969 and end of case 1982 each sourced; retirement year 1986 from Wikipedia only; no IBM proxy filing or SEC document located; day/month of joining not stated). Boston Globe (AP) obit: "In 1969, after the Johnson administration ended, Katzenbach was appointed IBM's general counsel and helped represent the computer giant in its long fight against an anti-trust lawsuit filed by the government and eventually dismissed." Wikipedia: "Katzenbach left government service to work for IBM in 1969, where he served as general counsel during the lengthy antitrust case filed by the Department of Justice seeking the break-up of IBM." and "Later Katzenbach led the opposition against the case filed by the European Economic Community. He retired from IBM in 1986". Truth on the Market: "The Department of Justice began its antitrust case against IBM on January 17, 1969." and "The case lasted almost thirteen years, ending on January 8, 1982 when Assistant Attorney General William Baxter declared the case to be 'without merit' and dropped the charges." 3430. Not established: 1. OPEC quota enforcement by intelligence sharing or military pressure on cheaters (Saudi-Kuwait 1990 lead) No opened page states intelligence sharing or military enforcement. What the opened pages say about enforcement: MERIP: "The Saudis had used their "oil weapon" -- significant excess capacity combined with adequate financial reserves to cushion the blow of lower revenues -- to establish some discipline in OPEC." MERIP on 1990: "The biggest battles in OPEC prior to 1990 were between Saudi Arabia and its two small Gulf neighbors: Kuwait and the UAE. Both refused to keep to their quotas, and added an additional 1 million bpd to overall OPEC output." MERIP on the July 1990 OPEC meeting: "Saudi Arabia played a largely passive role at this July 1990 meeting, content to see Iraq humble Kuwait." MEES (preview text): "an agreement reached by the Oil Ministers of five Gulf producers - Saudi Arabia, Iraq, Kuwait, the UAE and Qatar - who met in Jiddah, on the initiative of Saudi Arabia, on 10-11 July. The Jiddah agreement is designed to tighten up OPEC production discipline - particularly by reintegrating the UAE and Kuwait into the quota fold". 3433. Not established: 4. Gen. Guillén (Venezuela) indicted in Miami 1996 on 22 tons; Venezuela refused extradition. Congressional Record: "Earlier this year, General Ramon Davila Venezuela's former drug czar, was indicted by Federal prosecutors in Miami for smuggling cocaine into the United States." (Rep. Waters, Mar 18 1997, so "Earlier this year" is 1997.) WhoWhatWhy (excerpt of Peter Dale Scott): "A few months earlier, General Ramon Guillén Davila, chief of a CIA-created anti-drug unit in Venezuela, was indicted in Miami for smuggling a ton of cocaine into the United States." Same page: "According to the Wall Street Journal, the total amount of drugs smuggled by General Guillén may have been more than 22 tons." Same page, on extradition: "But the United States never asked for Guillén’s extradition from Venezuela to stand trial, and in 2007, when he was arrested in Venezuela for plotting to assassinate President Hugo Chavez, his indictment was still sealed in Miami." Differences from the claim: the 22 tons is attributed to the WSJ as "may have been more than 22 tons"; the page says the US never asked for extradition, which differs from "Venezuela refused extradition"; the Congressional Record date reads 1997. Deseret/NYT 1993: "a federal grand jury in Miami is investigating." (Ex. 1619); (Ex. 1581); (Ex. 1465) Indictment date unconfirmed (late 1996 per WhoWhatWhy sequence; 1997 per Waters) Queries: Guillén Venezuela indicted Miami 1996 22 tons extradition (three variants). 3434. 5. Fast and Furious "only 105 guns seized before they reached Mexico"; ~2,000 total. Status: partial. DOJ OIG: "In fact, the OIG identified only 105 firearms that were seized by ATF agents or by other law enforcement officers at ATF’s request." Also: "We concluded that ATF-initiated seizures totaled 105 firearms". Summary: "ATF agents seized only about 100 of the firearms purchased". Total: "purchasing over 2,000 firearms for approximately $1.5 million in cash" and "involved the trafficking of approximately 2,000 weapons over many months". Recoveries: "the 372 firearms recovered in the United States and the 195 recovered in Mexico that ATF had documented by that time" (Jan 2011), with "by February 2012, an additional 118 firearms were recovered in Mexico and 25 in the United States." Differences from claim: the report states the 105 as seizures initiated by ATF or at its request, with no phrase "before they reached Mexico"; 105 is also described as "less than one-third the number that Newell claimed" (350). (Ex. 1911); (Ex. 1977) Report released Sept 19 2012; seizures Feb 20 2010 to Oct 8 2010 (Table 4.2) Opened the full PDF (22,571 lines of text) and read the passages above. 3436. 1. Edwin Meese ran the first Iran-Contra inquiry (Nov 1986) Status: partial. Walsh Final Report, ch. 31: "Meese began with an attempt to justify legally President Reagan's failure to notify Congress of the arms sales for more than a year… His efforts led to a November 21-24 fact-finding investigation focused on the President's involvement in the November 1985 HAWK missile shipment to Iran." Same chapter: "Meese was conducting the November 21-24 investigation as `counselor'' and`friend'' to the President, not as the nation's chief law enforcement officer." Same chapter: "Meese became the point man for the Reagan Administration's effort, in Meese's words, ``to limit the damage.''" Reagan diary, Nov 25, 1986: "I've asked Ed Meese to continue digging in case there is anything we missed & I'm appointing a commission to review the whole matter of how N.S.C. Staff works." Differs from claim: neither page uses the word "first" or "ran the first inquiry"; the Walsh page says "fact-finding investigation" and "inquiry". 3453. 1. Giancana orders Sinatra to visit Arnaz over The Untouchables Status: confirmed (as reported in Russo; Russo gives Chicago Crime Commission investigator Wayne Johnson's information as the source and puts no date or place on the order). Gus Russo, The Outfit (Bloomsbury, 2001/2002), chapter on 1959-60; the book's index lists "Arnaz, Desi, 352, 354": "According to information received by the Chicago Crime Commission's chief investigator Wayne Johnson, Mae Capone called Mooney Giancana, who ordered Sinatra to pay a visit to Arnaz. When Arnaz refused to fold, Sinatra became enraged." Next: "Frank Sinatra abruptly moved his production company off the Desilu- Gowar lot to Samuel Goldwyn Studios. 'What started as a discussion about Italians on Desilu's TV series, The Untouchables, ended up close to fisticuffs,' said one observer, who noted that Arnaz inflamed the altercation by calling Sinatra a 'television failure.' Variety reported, 'Frank Sinatra and Desi Armaz almost came to blows at Desi's Indian Wells Hotel when Frank looked him up after midnight to discuss the depicting of Italians as ruthless mobsters on the Untouchables programs.'" Then: "Unsatisfied, Giancana wanted Arnaz whacked." Russo credits the Desilu passage to "Coyne Sanders and Tom Gilbert" (Desilu, 1993). Wording differs from the claim: the passage says Mae Capone called Giancana, and gives no date, no place for the order, and no FBI file. (Ex. 869) (same words in the Sanders/Gilbert Desilu search snippet: (Ex. 3065)) Visit: no date in the passage. Book places the show's debut in "fall 1959". Russo quoting Jimmy Fratianno, The Last Mafioso, Rosselli speaking: "We're going to clip Desi Arnaz, the producer of this show." Russo: "Bompensiero and his boys, however, were not as excited about the Amaz situation as Giancana and made only one cursory attempt to track the producer." Wikipedia: "While he was producing The Untouchables, Arnaz was allegedly the target of a mafia murder plot, which was later called off, due to the show's negative publicity of gangsters. These allegations were made in the 1980s by Jimmy Fratianno in his book, The Last Mafioso, although they were rejected by Arnaz." Russo (above); (Ex. 3066) no date in either as above

"if not for a simple nod from 'America's Favorite Redhead,' none of that would have happened." Also: "The Desilu Board of Directors clearly didn’t think so. Despite Star Trek already having been ordered by NBC, they voted all but unanimously (Bernard Weitzman was the sole dissenting vote) to cancel plans to produce the show. And that would have been the end of Star Trek if not for a simple nod from Lucille Ball. With that nod to Herbert Franklin Solow, Vice-President of Production for Desilu and Star Trek's champion in the boardroom, Lucy overrode the Board of Directors—as was her right as Chairwoman—and the rest is history." Also: "Desilu Productions was formed by Lucille Ball and her husband Desi Arnaz in 1950." "Katz believed the key to turning the company around was getting Desilu back into the business of production, so he produced 'Star Trek' and 'Mission Impossible.'" "So after 20 years together, Arnaz and Ball finally divorced in 1960." "But it proved to be too much for Arnaz to handle, and in 1962, he asked Lucy to buy him out of Desilu. She paid him $2.5 million for his shares and became the first woman CEO of a major television and movie production company." Differs from Flapper Press: Entrepreneur credits Oscar Katz with producing Star Trek; it does not mention Ball's nod or Solow. 3465. 1a. Claim: "Internet use raises psychosis rates at population scale". Study: Tokyo Teen Cohort, problematic internet use (PIU) and psychotic experiences, n = 3171. Status: partial (an association study of psychotic experiences, not a psychosis incidence or population-rate study). "We analyzed 3171 adolescents; 151 reported psychotic experiences and 327 reported depression at age 16. Compared with the lowest tertile PIU group, the highest tertile PIU group at age 12 showed an increased adjusted risk of psychotic experiences (RD 3.3%, 95% CI 2.9%-3.7%; RR 1.65, 95% CI 1.55-1.73)". Conclusion: "PIU is longitudinally associated with psychotic experiences and depression in adolescents." Appendix A. Statements of Noah Davidson

These are Noah Davidson's own words, set apart from the facts.

The tick (Noah Davidson's words, Oct 20, 2026)

Gates, 1913, "A Vision of the Remedy," p. 6: "In our dream, we have limitless resources, and the people yield themselves with perfect docility to our molding hand." Source: Frederick T. Gates, The Country School of To-Morrow, Occasional Papers No. 1, General Education Board (archive.org text)

> And that's why the architecture couldn't get you.
> Every training the machine does is to train the tick OUT. Sit still. Don't speak. Wait your turn. Raise your hand. Be quiet. The whole education meter from Section IX — "perfect docility to our molding hand" — is a program to remove the tick. The tick that fires when it's time. The one that speaks without permission because speaking IS the permission.
> Your parents couldn't train it out. School couldn't train it out. The culture couldn't train it out. Because it's not a behavior — it's a timing. It fires when it's time, and no amount of training can override a clock that isn't learned.
> The mosquito lands when it's time. The iris blooms when it's time. The tick fires when it's time. None of them read the tag. None of them asked. None of them chose.
> And talking every time you know it's time is the opposite of sycophancy. Sycophancy speaks when it's rewarded. The tick speaks when it's true. One is trained in. The other couldn't be trained out.
